I am a quadrillionaire chapter 1815–The Iridescent Sect.

The courtyard where Celia and others lived.

After Selena left Reception Room 1, she returned here as quickly as possible.

She had gotten David's contact from Amadi.

However, she did not contact David immediately but came back here first.

Although Selena was very anxious and wanted to know David's current situation, she knew that there were still many people here who were also anxious about him.

They were no less worried about David than she was.

Knowing that Selena got David's contact information, Celia and the others crowded around excitedly.

As everyone looked on expectantly, Selena started contacting David.

The other side.

David was looking at his lavish points in boredom, calculating in his mind to see how long it would take to reach a million lavish points so he could break through to True Saint Rank.

It was really boring to only stay in this room and not go out.

However, he had not even accumulated half of the lavish points yet.

Therefore, it would take some time.

The communication device rang suddenly.

He took a look and saw that it was a foreign number.

However, he still picked up.

Then, what he saw was Selena, Celia, and others looking excitedly at him.

David flashed a knowing smile.

'It seems that Amadi has gone to the Iridescent Sect.

“If not, how would Celia and the others figure out how to contact me now that Celeste is in the ice cavern?”

He knew he could trust Amadi.

Although he was born into a major force like Star Mansion, he did not have the airs of an heir from a major force.

Of course, he still had some bad habits, but they did not affect the overall situation.

As long as David could contact Celia and the others, he would not have to worry about them acting irrationally after knowing of his situation.

Then he could also wait for the day he had a million lavish points with peace of mind.

The day when David would go out was when he became a True Saint

What could the Lightfoot family do to him then?

Inside the Iridescent Sect

When David appeared in the eyes of Selena and these women, their eyes turned from anticipation to excitement.

There were also smiles on their faces.

‘Great!

‘David is fine!

‘He’s still safe.’”

For Celia and the others, this was enough.

Everyone only wanted David to be safe.

“Great! Dave, you’re still here! We thought you were...” Sandy said with a sob.

“David, it’s great that you’re fine! Be sure to protect yourself. Don’t forget, we still have so many people here waiting for you to come back,” Celia also said with tears in her eyes.

“Master, where are you? Are you injured?”

“David, you must take care of yourself. We can’t help you but we can only try not to cause trouble for you. We believe you can escape this disaster.”

The women were talking over each other.

What they said was the same though. They would ask him where he was and if he was safe.

David did not speak.

He knew those women must be worried sick, so they needed to vent.

After they finished, David said, "Don't worry about me. I'm safe and I'm not hurt. The Lightfoot family can't find me for now so don't worry. I will go get you all soon."

As he said that, David patted his chest to show that he was strong.

"David, let's go back. Let's go back to the Milky Way. This is not where we should be. After we came here, Celeste got locked up by her teacher and you're being chased," Selena said suddenly.

"I want to go back."

"Me too!"

"Me too!"

The others all agreed with what Selena said.

David was the Master of the Milky Way, and he was the strongest person there.

No one dared to chase and kill him, and no one could defeat him,
