

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 1824

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 1824—If the Palmore family made a move, the Fellowes family would definitely be unable to resist.

Hence, their only hope now was David.

Alba immediately contacted Valerio, the head of Treasure Trove.

At this time, Valerio was also devastated.

The Palmore family not only seized East League Trading Company, but they also issued a warning to the Fellowes family.

'Don't blame the Palmore family for being merciless if the Fellowes family continues to play tricks like this.

'What do they mean by that?'

Needless to say, the Fellowes family understood that too.

With the Palmore family's warning, the Fellowes family really dared not continue using Treasure Trove's resources to help David.

Otherwise, if something happened to David, the Fellowes family might be doomed.

Of course, they could not help even if they wanted to. East League Trading Company had been sequestered, so how could they help?

The entire Fellowes family was beaten black and blue by the Palmore family with just a few words.

This was the strength of the six top forces of Star Kingdom.

Normally, only a statement was needed to scare a major force like the Fellowes family witless.

The grandmasters of the Fellowes family also began to come out of seclusion one after another. Except for the three True Saints, several other Pre-Saints had already come out.

Now, only Saints could stabilize the situation of the Fellowes family.

Otherwise, the people would not be united, and the Palmore family would not need to make a move before the Fellowes family was torn apart.

Even now, there were two different voices among the core seniors of the Fellowes family.

One thought that they should never have helped David in the first place as the Fellowes family would not have fallen into the current situation.

Even if the Palmore family wanted to do something to them, they would not do it now.

After helping David, the Palmore family acted in advance. A lot of people were not happy about this.

Meanwhile, the other side still supported David.

They figured there was still a glimmer of hope, and they should give it a try.

If they did not fight, they could only wait for death slowly.

One side was strong medicine, which could determine their life and death with just one move.

Meanwhile, the other side was lethal poison, which could prolong their lives, but they could only wait for death with no hope of surviving

The two voices were arguing

Even the Saint Realm grandmasters were involved.

Roald supported and helped David, but there were also Saint Realm grandmasters who were against this.

As the initiator of this predicament, Valerio suffered tremendous pressure.

After all, if he did not bring this news back, the Fellowes family would not have gambled on this, eventually causing the dissatisfaction of the Palmore family and bringing on the crisis earlier.

He was most likely the one responsible for the early demise of the Fellowes family.

The Fellowes family had more than one voice asking to oust Valerio as the head of Treasure Trove.

When he received the news from Alba, Valerio was presiding over his work in this large trade zone.

This was where unstable situation was centered around.

Both the Lightfoot and Fellowes families sent a large number of masters to gather here.

Upon receiving the news, Valerio immediately went to the room where David was staying without any hesitation.

Soon, he appeared in front of David.

“May I know why you want to see me, Master David?” Valerio asked.

Until now, he had always believed that there was definitely a Sacred Saint behind David.

As long as the Lightfoot family found David and threatened his life, David would definitely ask his master to come out to save the scene.

The appearance of a hiding Saint would definitely cause turmoil in the entire Star Kingdom.

At that time, the Fellowes family might have a chance.

That was why Valerio stayed.

The Fellowes family had tried to call him back several times, but Valerio ignored them.

He had put all his eggs in one basket and bet all his chips on David.

If he succeeded, Valerio would be the hero of the Fellowes family, but if he failed, he would be the sinner.
