

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 1885

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 1885-The scene was temporarily quiet as everyone was thinking of the identity of the True Saint.

However, aside from showing his energy, this person never showed up.

Tai could not endure this anymore.

As the Palmore family's True Saint, he would not allow anyone to challenge his majesty.

Not even when the other party was also a True Saint.

"Who are you? Why are you so nosey? Do you know what you're doing? Beware of getting into trouble," Tai roared.

What greeted him was a figure soaring into the sky.

Woosh!

Then, he saw a cold light.

Tai felt a great threat from this cold light.

However, it was too late for him to think about it, so he hastily shouted, "How presumptuous!"

Immediately, a big saber appeared in his hand, and he waved the saber down.

Clang!

The sword's light collided with the saber's light, making a deafening sound.

The people on the ground could not help but cover their ears, showing pain on their faces.

After resisting the cold light, Tai did not get a chance to relax.

That figure had already appeared in front of him and was swinging a sword toward him.

Clang!

It was the sound of blades clashing.

The sound of the collision just now was even more horrendous.

Many weaker people on the ground had blood oozing from their ears, and some could not bear it anymore and had begun to roll all over the ground, howling in pain.

Tai felt a huge force coming from his hands, pushing his body back uncontrollably.

After a red long sword collided with his big saber under his eyes, it cut a gap in his saber.

However, the red long sword was unscathed.

His saber was the best among high-level Soulbound Weapons, but it was actually destroyed by a thin long sword.

'Is that a first-rate Soulbound Weapon?

'How can that be?'

His saber was about to be broken by the long sword.

Once the saber was broken, the long sword would hurt him.

Tai's body would not be able to handle being touched by such a treasure.

Tai could not help shouting, "Cosmo, what are you waiting for?"

The battle between the two happened in the blink of an eye.

The people on the ground could not see the speed of the True Saints. Cosmo was also a True Saint, so he could.

However, he did not expect the other party to make a sudden move just now.

Therefore, he could not come back to his senses for a while.

Upon hearing Tai's roar, he also realized that something was wrong.

It was time to rescue Tai.

Cedar also reacted.

It did not matter if this True Saint was David's master or not.

Since he was here to help him, he would not let the other party suffer the attacks of the enemy.

He would work together with the party to resolve the immediate crisis first.

Of course, he would have to act once Cosmo took action.

When the two were about to move, another figure shot out from the deepest part of Treasure Trove and headed for Cosmo.

He was very fast, and he was in front of Cosmo in the blink of an eye. He waved his hammer which was covered with countless lightning bolts.

Cosmos did not expect someone to be hiding in the dark.

His focus was on the other three.

The sudden appearance of this person forced him to take out his Soulbound Weapon to block the attack.

Boom!

Boom!

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 1886

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 1886-There were two loud sounds.

The first sound was from Cosmo after he was sent flying backward.

The second sound was from him falling to the ground.

Luckily, the person who attacked did not throw Cosmo into the crowd.

Instead, he changed direction and threw him horizontally toward the empty land far away. Then, Cosmo created a huge hole in the ground.

If not, this impact would cause a lot of tragic deaths if he had landed in the crowd.

The other figure also broke Tai's saber.

When the sword was about to touch Tai, he flicked a marble at the other party's face.

The person did not know what weapon this was. In order to prevent any foul play, he used his sword to block it hastily.

Boom!

After the marble collided with the red long sword, it caused an explosion.

The huge shockwave separated the two temporarily.

Due to the powerful defense of the Saint's body, neither side suffered any substantial damage. 2

Tai paused and looked at the broken high-level Soulbound Weapon in his hand. Then, he gritted his teeth and stared up at the smoke from the big explosion in front of him.

How long had it been since he suffered such a loss?

His high-level Soulbound Weapon was broken, and he almost got hurt too.

Cosmo also rushed out of the hole and stood with Tai, following Tai's gaze with an unpleasant look on his face.

The four members of the Fellowes family were once again in a daze.

If the first figure to rush out was David's mysterious master, then who was this second figure?

He could knock Cosmo flying with a hammer.

Even if it was a sneak attack, it was still done by a True Saint.

How could a Pre-Saint launch a sneak attack against a True Saint?

It would be asking for death.

'Are there two True Saints hiding in Treasure Trove?

'Why didn't we notice?'

The smoke from the big explosion dispersed.

Then, two figures appeared in the sky.

One held a sword, while the other a hammer.

"Who the hell are you?" Tai asked through gritted teeth.

"Wasn't everyone looking for me? Now that I am here, don't you recognize me anymore?" One of the figures chuckled.

The two people who appeared suddenly were, of course, David and his clone.

After learning the skill, David detected that a fight was about to start in the sky.

Before he had time to think about it, he displayed some of his energy and interrupted the impending battle in the sky.

However, he did not go out immediately.

Instead, he got a drop of blood essence from his heart and summoned a clone. 1

Since they were going to fight, he definitely had to fight in his best state.

He did not want to give the enemy any chance.

Since this was his first summon, David was not yet proficient, so he wasted a little time.

It was not until Tai asked aloud that his clone was successfully summoned.

Then, he faced Tai with the Evil-Splitting Sword himself.

On the other hand, the clone used the God of Thunder Hammer and launched a sneak attack on Cosmo.

He was fighting against two True Saints alone, and yet he had the upper hand.

David was very satisfied with the results of this battle.

The clone was just as the system said. It possessed the same strength as him.

Despite being coupled with the incomplete God of Thunder Hammer, its combat power was still quite good.

There might be no one who could produce this result in solo battle.

After all, Tai and Cosmo were not easy to deal with.

Upon hearing David's answer, Roald, Valerio, Alba, Moby, and Amadi among the crowd on the ground were dumbfounded.

The five people stared blankly at the two figures, which were not very clear yet.

They had all met David.

In particular, Alba and Amadi had the most interactions with David.

David's voice was all too familiar, so they were sure that this was his voice.

Even so, they could not connect David with the man who threw the True Saint to the ground just now.

Only one idea appeared in the minds of the five people. 1 'David is not a Pre-Saint, but a True Saint.'

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-