

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 1889

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 1889-Tai looked at the smile on David's face.

It felt like David was mocking him.

He really wanted to rush over and give David a hard lesson.

However, after looking back at the fight just now and the strength David showed, Tai restrained himself.

Even if David had the chance to launch a sneak attack on him, he should not underestimate this kid's power.

Plus, there were two of them.

Furthermore, the red long sword in David's hand could break his high-level Soulbound Weapon, so it was definitely a super weapon.

It was most likely a first-rate Soulbound Weapon.

Weapons were often the key to the battle of powerhouses at the same level.

"Who the hell are you? There have never been two brothers like you in Star Kingdom." Tai asked loudly.

"Are you dumb? Didn't I tell you? I'm David and he's David Two, my younger brother! Did you not understand such a simple answer?" David replied mockingly.

"You..." Tai was speechless after being scolded by David.

Tai had always attracted attention and was respected wherever he went.

When had someone ever treated him like this?

Furthermore, it was in front of so many people in Star Kingdom.

Tai felt as if he was going to lose control of the anger in his heart.

"What? With your low IQ, I really wonder how you can become a True Saint. It's a complete disgrace to True Saints. If I were you, I'd kill myself right now. Why bother embarrassing myself?" David continued to trigger Tai.

"David, you're asking for it!" Tai's eyes were red from glaring as he spat through gritted teeth.

He was on the brink of explosion after being repeatedly humiliated.

Tai was not only representing himself. He was also representing his entire family.

If he did not do anything after David scolded him, this matter would spread throughout Star Kingdom tomorrow.

Then, the Palmore family's years of accumulated glory would be destroyed.

"You want me to die? It depends on whether you have the ability or not. Let's go, we can't fight without restraints here. We can go to the void and fight for another 300 rounds to see who will die if you have the guts," David pointed his red long sword at Tai and said arrogantly.

"If I don't teach you a lesson today, I am not a Palmore, let alone a member of the Palmore family." "If you don't want to be a Palmore, you can be a Lidell. I don't mind that. David chuckled.

"David, you rascal!" Tai cursed.

"You talk so much sh*t. Let's go, I'll see you in the void."

After David finished speaking, his body turned into a ray of light. After soaring into the sky, he disappeared in an instant.

Another sentence came from the void.

"David Two, I'll leave the rest to you. Don't embarrass me, Brother, or I'll kick your *ss." "Don't worry, Big Brother! I will beat him so hard that his mother won't even recognize him," the clone replied loudly.

There was immediately commotion on the ground.

Everyone looked like they wanted to laugh but they did not dare to.

David scolded Tai for being dumb and having a worrying IQ.

However, from their perspective, David Two was the one with a worrying IQ.

He looked like a complete fool.

In one word, he was boorish.

What a simple-minded brawn.

However, such a person could reach True Saint Rank at such a young age.

How on earth did he do it?

This is a question that everyone wanted to know.

Seeing that David was gone, Tai naturally followed him. His body also turned into a long ray of light and disappeared.

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 1890

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 1890-There were so many people watching from below, so even if he did not want to fight, he had no choice.

Besides, he also needed to vent the anger in his heart.

Therefore, a battle would be the best way to do this.

After the two True Saints left, three were left.

David's clone, Cedar, and Cosmo.

"How do you want to fight? Tell me now. When my brother comes back, I will be punished if I don't beat you to a pulp." David Two held the God of Thunder Hammer and took a step toward say to Cosmo while pointing at him.

"We have no grievances between us, so there's no need for us to fight," Cosmo said.

He also could tell that David Two was not that smart, so he wanted to talk him out of this.

"My brother said we have to! If not, he will punish me when he comes back." "Answer me this and then I'll fight you. If not, we won't fight, and we'll wait for your brother to come back to punish you." "Ask away! Let's fight right after. Stop talking so much like a b*tch!" "Stop talking to him! Go and hit him!" Cedar stopped David Two from behind.

He knew what Cosmo had in mind.

He could not let Cosmo get more information from David Two.

Cedar wanted to go up, but he was worried that David Two would not know his friend from foe. If that happened, it would be tricky.

David was not here, so no one could control this strong idiot.

When Cosmo saw David Two not moving, he asked, "Who are you? Where did you come from? What are you doing in the Central Sacred Continent? Do you have people more powerful than you in your family?" "Are you also stupid? Didn't my brother tell you that he's David and I'm David Two? As for where we're from, I don't want to tell you and I also don't want to tell you why I'm here. Plus, I also don't want to tell you if there's another more powerful person in my family. Alright, that's my answer. Let's fight!" David said seriously.

"Pfft!" Alba could not hold back and burst into laughter while covering her mouth.

When she started laughing, the people below also burst into laughter.

They had been holding on for a very long time, and all they needed was a fuse.

"Hahaha!"

All of them started laughing loudly.

Cosmo's face was burning as it turned dark and pale.

He was a True Saint, but these ants were laughing at him.

If there were not so many people on the ground and they were not from different forces, he would have killed all of them. He would hesitate if it would not cause a huge problem in Star Kingdom that the Lightfoot family could not bear.

"If that's the case, come with me. There are too many people here. Let's fight at an empty place to prevent hurting the innocent." After Cosmo said that, he turned into a ray of light and shot into the distance.

He wanted to find an empty place to talk to this idiot.

He wanted to see if he could extract some information from him.

Honestly, it was very shocking to have two True Saints this young.

Cosmo figured that they were not from Star Kingdom. Instead, they were from an even higher civilization outside of Star Kingdom.

As a True Saint, he had seen a lot of things.

Star Kingdom was just a level 7 civilization.

In the vast and boundless universe, the highest level was a level 10 civilization, which was the God Tier Civilization.

Below the God Tier Civilization was a level 9 civilization, followed by a level 8 civilization, and then a level 7 civilization. 1

Every time there was a difference in civilization, there would be a very large gap in strength.

If Cosmo could get information about something more advanced and civilized than Star Kingdom from that idiot, it would be very beneficial to him.

Cosmo had no idea that David Two was just faking it.

In reality, David was the one manipulating him this entire time.
