I am a quadrillionaire chapter 1957-The two True Saints of the Palmore family were stunned by the sudden attack, not to mention the people on the ship.

The mobile fortress that required a huge amount of financial and material resources to build was destroyed immediately.

However, this was not the worst part.

The ones who suffered the most were the powerhouses of the Palmore family on the ship. They were all strong members of the Palmore family, and they were now dead. There were hundreds of them.

It would take more energy and time to train these soldiers.

'They were just killed like that?'

The two True Saints looked off-colored.

Only Anders showed an excited look.

He did not care what happened to the rest of the Palmore family.

It did not matter if they died. His family just needed to spend resources and time cultivating more of them.

However, since David dared to kill his family, then he was completely doomed.

Once the message was passed back to the Palmore family, the grandmaster would definitely take action to deal with David himself.

He did not even need to say anything to ensure that David would be finished.

Anders now despised David to the bone.

He could not wait for David to die.

Only in this way could he completely quell his rage.

"David, since you dared to kill the people from my family, you are dead meat. The grandmaster will definitely kill you and your entire bloodline. Just wait for your death! Not only you, but everyone related to you will also be uprooted," Anders pointed at David and snapped frantically.

He did not feel sad because of the death of the Palmore family members, but instead, there was a hint of joy in his tone.

As long as David was dead, he did not care how many of his family members died. It would be worth it anyway.

He would be fine as long as he was still alive.

“If you have the time and energy to worry about me, you might as well worry about yourself!”

David smiled contemptuously.

Then, he waved his sword.

‘Evil-Splitting Sword Technique!’

Woosh!

A red light shot toward Anders and the other two.

The space where it passed collapsed and countless small space cracks surrounded the red light.

“David, how dare you?!”

Upon seeing this, the pupils of the two True Saints instantly dilated. They could feel the power of this sword.

Even if they were both True Saints, they would be seriously injured by this attack, much less the partial Saint Anders.

He would surely die if he was hit.

Anders was a figure valued by Grandmaster Zenon, so he could not die here.

Otherwise, they would be punished severely when they returned.

The two grabbed Anders at the same time, tore through the space with their hands, and quickly got in.

They did not have the slightest thought of resisting this attack. Their only thought right now was to escape.

When they returned to the family, they could send stronger people to deal with David, or they could ask the ancestors to take action to identify the force behind David.

After entering the four-dimensional space, the two did not stop but continued to tear apart several space barriers, continuously passing through the five- and six-dimensional spaces to enter the seven-dimensional space.

After reaching the highest dimensional space that a True Saint could enter, they left quickly with Anders.

Before the crack in the space outside had time to close, David's sword light reached it.

Then, it entered the crack.

After that...

"Ah!"

The people outside could hear three shrill screams from the crack in the space that was about to close.

Obviously, they were seriously injured by David's sword.

"David, just you wait! My family will definitely make you wish you were dead!"

As soon as they heard Anders' exasperated words, the space crack closed.

The world fell into silence.

Everyone looked at the figure in the sky who was standing there like a god.

In addition to envy, endless worship filled their eyes.

This was a real powerhouse.

The Palmore family members, who caused the Fellowes family to be helpless and forced them into a life-and-death situation, were easily taken care of with two waves of David's sword.
