I am a quadrillionaire chapter 1976-“I understand! Thank you for reminding me, Nova. I’m 100% sure I can save Celeste, so don’t worry!” David responded with a smile.

“Well, if that’s the case, I’ll go first. Be careful.”

After Nova finished speaking, she turned around and quickly disappeared from David’s sight.

David watched Nova leave.

Then, he turned around and walked directly towards the entrance of the ice cavern without the slightest hesitation.

As a partial Pre-Deity, there was no place in Star Kingdom that he was afraid to enter.

After he entered the ice cavern, cold air swept toward David as if it had come to life.

However, just when it was about to touch David’s body...

“Huff!” David snorted heavily.

The strong cold air immediately rolled back as if it had encountered a natural enemy.

David did not pay any attention to it and strode toward the depths of the ice cavern.

Wherever he passed, not only did the cold air voluntarily retreat, but even the ice cubes that had existed on the ground for countless years automatically melted to make way for him.

Only after he passed by did the ice dare to continue to freeze and return to its original state.

If Nova saw this scene, she would be absolutely shocked and speechless.

She was not scared of the cold if it was only for a short while.

However, even the reputable elders could not make the cold air retreat or make the ten-thousand-year-old ice under their feet automatically melt to give way.

David followed the passage of the ice cavern to a wider place.

Here, he saw a lot of ice sculptures. These should be the individuals from the Iridescent Sect who made major mistakes and were sent to get punished here.

David ignored them and continued walking.

The lower he went, the heavier the cold air and the fewer ice sculptures.

When he reached the bottom of the ice cavern, the cold air had reached an extreme.

Of course, it still avoided David, not daring to approach him.

When he got to the bottom of the ice cavern, David sensed a familiar energy and looked closer.

Then, he saw an ice sculpture standing alone not far away.

From the outside, the person inside the ice sculpture could be vaguely seen to be wearing a red dress.

'Celeste!'

Despite the thick ice and David not being able to see the person's appearance clearly, he knew the person in the ice sculpture was Celeste.

David had mixed feelings for Celeste.

The other party gave him a different experience and it was even more memorable than his time with Celia.

When he was with Celia, he felt like it was a natural progression, but when he was with Celeste, it felt like a sudden wave in a very peaceful life.

At that time, David had just broken through Eternal Realm while Celeste was a late Sovereign Ranker.

If not for that accident, the two would not be in this current situation.

In reality, until now, they had never had any physical contact. They never touched each other's fingers, but they knew every part of each other's body!
