

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 1977

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 1977-After watching Celeste's ice sculpture in silence for a while, David said, "Celeste! I'm here to save you."

However, he did not get any response from the other party.

David frowned.

He could feel Celeste's Life Flame and it was burning very brightly.

However, why did she not answer?

It was impossible for her to not hear him at such a close distance.

'Could it be that the extremely cold air inside the ice cavern has affected Celeste's character?

'Didn't Nova say that there will be no problem for a late Sovereign Ranker to last ten or eight years?

'How long has it been?

'Has she already been affected?'

David started to panic a little.

If a person's personality changed, then they would no longer be the same person as before.

He raised his voice and yelled again, "Celeste! Can you hear me? I'm David, and I'm here to save you."

However, it was still silent.

David's frown deepened.

In the end, he had no choice but to let out a trace of mind power and stepped forward to check Celeste's situation.

When his mind power touched the ice sculpture, his eyes flickered, and he entered a strange environment.

When he wanted to force his way out, he realized this place looked very familiar.

Thus, David looked around.

'Isn't this the place where I had that accident with Celeste the first time?'

Then, David saw Celeste not far away.

The other party was wearing a red dress while staring at him blankly, without saying a word.

David was a little embarrassed to be stared at.

"Cough... Um... Celeste, are you okay?"

Celeste was interrupted by David's voice. Then, she came back to her senses and said slowly, "David, I thought I would stay in the ice cavern for a hundred years and I would no longer be the same me I used to be. I thought I would be eroded by the extreme cold air for a hundred years and will become a weapon without any emotion in the Iridescent Sect. I didn't want this, but I couldn't change anything.

"I never thought that someone would come to save me because this is an order from Master. Among the people I know, no one has the strength to save someone in the Iridescent Sect by themselves, but when Lady Dream came to tell me that you've grown to this point and I had to hold on, I really couldn't believe it. This feels like a dream, David. Thank you for taking the risk to save me, thank you very much!"

After saying these words, Celeste was already in tears.

She was not the Elder Red of the Iridescent Sect at this moment, but a woman surrounded by happiness.

Having lived for nearly two thousand years, she never thought that she would see this day.

Eira had always reminded Celeste that she had a special alluring body.

Therefore, she could not touch men, let alone be attracted to any man in this lifetime.

Now, facing this man who is much younger than herself, Celeste did not want to hold back anymore.

What she owed to Master was already paid off the moment she entered the ice cavern.

After leaving this place, Celeste wanted to be her true self.

Upon hearing Celeste's words, David finally hid frown and smiled.

It turned out that Celeste was not affected by the cold.

His efforts had not been in vain.

If Celeste was not who she used to be, David might not be able to stop himself from destroying the Iridescent Sect.

Recommended Novels