

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2001

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2001-Alba contacted David after she finished speaking.

Regardless of whether David was busy with his work or not, or whether he could come or not, Alba had to tell him about the attack from the Saint Association law enforcement team.

Furthermore, there was a good chance that even Zenon was coming.

The Fellowes family was defenseless against a Sacred Saint.

After taking out her communication device, Alba thought about it and decided to send a message to David first. Then, she would contact him directly if he did not reply.

She typed and deleted the content of the message repeatedly. She had no idea what she should say to him.

When she was about to send the message, she would change her mind again.

Cedar looked at Alba's lost expression and asked nervously, "Alba, what's wrong? What did David say?"

He had no idea that Alba had not even sent the message.

Valerio next to him also looked over nervously.

Both of them understood that David's reply represented the fate of the Fellowes family.

If he could come, the Fellowes family would have a glimmer of hope.

If he could not, the Fellowes family could only wait for death.

"Oh! Um... Grandmaster, David hasn't replied yet!" Alba lied.

The grandmaster's question finally made her make up her mind to send the message to David.

However, at this moment, a space crack suddenly appeared next to Alba.

A figure came out from. It was none other than David.

After the conversation with Celeste, he immediately rushed to the Fellowes Residence.

He also wanted to quickly resolve the troubles of the Fellowes family, return the favor, and then bring everyone back to Earth.

Star Kingdom was not his hometown, so David had no sense of belonging here.

Even if he was a partial Pre-Deity now and had become the strongest person in Star Kingdom, he did not want to stay here any longer.

When approaching the Fellowes Residence, David felt that countless powerhouses were crowding around the Fellowes Residence.

The high-dimensional space was also under surveillance.

Of course, the eight-dimensional space where David was located was not a space the Palmore family could monitor.

They could only monitor seven-dimensional space at most to prevent the three True Saints of the Fellowes family from escaping.

The eight-dimensional space was somewhere only Sacred Saints could enter.

People from the Palmore family probably would not have guessed that there would be a Sacred Saint here.

Among these people, David also sensed an unusually powerful aura.

A Sacred Saint!

That person was even the best among Sacred Saints, meaning they were at least a late or peak Sacred Saint.

That person must be Zenon, the Sacred Saint grandmaster of the Palmore family and the new head of the Saint Association.

It seemed that the Palmore family was about to take action.

Fortunately, he came in time.

When David arrived at the Fellowes Residence, he discovered Alba and the others' locations after scanning the residence with his mind power. Then, he went directly to the Fellowes Residence's meeting hall.

Cedar had been focusing on Alba.

It was not until David came out of the space crack that he realized that someone was coming.

He was taken aback at first.

He thought it was a Palmore family member or maybe even Zenon the Sacred Saint.

His surprise turned to joy the moment he saw David.

Cedar, who was about to greet David, did not have the time to speak before he spotted another hunched old man with a silver mask coming out of the space crack behind David.

After feeling the vast energy of the masked man, a surge of ecstasy surged from his heart and swept across his whole body.

He could guess the identity of the old masked man.

Recommended Novels