

I'm A Quadrillionaire

Chapter 2027

Chapter 2027

The Fellowes Residence.

In a quaint and quiet room, David's main form, his clone, and Sid sat together.

Sid looked at the old man and the young man in front of him.

He had never seen such a strange master and disciple duo.

What kind of master and disciple would be like this?

The disciple did not respect the master at all, but the master did not care.

'Could it be that the two are father and son?'

Otherwise, how could it be possible for a peak Sacred Saint to tolerate his disciple so well and not fuss about the disrespect?

He was mocked by his disciple in front of everyone and then had to work hard to prove himself.

Perhaps he had this son at an old age. His son might have had excellent talent and became a True Saint at a young age, and that was why he tolerated this behavior.

Otherwise, no matter how strong the master-disciple relationship was, it was impossible for the master to allow this kind of behavior.

Sid decided in his heart that the real relationship between the two people in front of him was father and son.

"May I know what you needed from me, Lord Sid?" David's clone asked.

"Sir, Zenon has become the head of the Saints Association, and he will definitely find a way to cause chaos in the Star Kingdom. He will cause devastation in Star Kingdom and then reap the benefits as a third party. The destruction of the Fellowes family was just the beginning, and after this, he would have followed it up with a series of actions. Now, the only one in Star Kingdom who can deal with Zenon is yourself, Sir. For the stability and prosperity of Star Kingdom, I have a presumptuous request which I hope you will accept," Sid said in a deep voice.

David looked at the old man who was concerned about the entire Star Kingdom in front of him and could not help admiring him.

Some things could not be faked.

Not even a late Sacred Saint could put on a show under David's strong perception.

Sid was genuinely concerned about all humans in Star Kingdom.

He did not gain everyone's respect without reason.

It could be seen from the series of rules formulated since Sid served as the head of the Saints Association.

Now that things had developed to this point, David would not refuse if he could help.

He would just regard this as a good deed since he did not want to see the Star Kingdom fall into chaos.

In the end, it was ordinary people who would get hurt from this.

When immortals fought, the mortals would suffer.

A casual strike by a strong Saint would cause the death of countless ordinary humans.

Facing Saint Might, anyone below Saint Realm would not be able to resist.

"Please tell me, Lord Sid!" David did not express his attitude immediately.

He still did not know what it was so it would be too hasty to agree.

He would wait until he knew what the other person had to say before making a decision!

"Sir, I want to recommend you to become the head of the Saints Association! We should get Zenon out of office so that it will be much more difficult for him to implement his plan. Moreover, with your strength, he would not dare to mess around." Sid took a deep breath and said.

This decision was also the result of his careful consideration.

Although Zenon's plan to take over the Fellowes family had been hampered, he would surely not give up just like that.

He would definitely continue to look from other ways to create chaos.

Only by removing Zenon from the head of the Saints Association could he be contained temporarily.

As for the future, they would cross that bridge when they came to it. They should first resolve the current crisis.

When David heard what Sid said, he felt his mind going blank.

'What the hell?'

'I should become the head of the Saints Association?'

'Are you sure you're not joking?'

'How would I have time for this?'

'My clone needs blood essence and he cost an hour per drop, no exceptions.'

'Although one or two drops, or even thirty or fifty drops, are nothing for now, won't I be exhausted after some time?'
