I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2057-After casting Soul Blaze, Eira and her sisters were preparing to pursue Lorraine.

With their current strength, which was much higher than Lorraine's, they could catch up with her soon and bring her back.

At this time, a chain protruded from the forbidden area and was heading in the direction in which Lorraine was fleeing.

Wherever it passed, the void vibrated vaguely. It did not look real, and it seemed that it was not bound by space at all.

One end of the chain disappeared into the void in the blink of an eye.

"Master!"

Seeing the appearance of the chains, Eira and her sisters exclaimed with ecstasy on their face.

At the same time, they also immediately stopped casting Soul Blaze.

With their master around, they were no longer needed.

Stopping the forbidden technique early could reduce the damage to themselves.

The four did not expect their master to have already woken up.

For them, it was a surprise.

'We haven't completed the task, right?

'He also didn't absorb the alluring body, so how did he wake up so suddenly?'

However, these details were not important anymore.

As long as the master could wake up, everything would be fine.

Nova and the others were shocked by the chain that suddenly protruded from the forbidden area and was chasing after Lorraine.

In addition, the four reputable elders called out Master at the same time.

Everyone figured that the secrets in the forbidden area of the Iridescent Sect were probably related to the master mentioned by the reputable elders.

'Could it be that the so-called master has been hiding in the forbidden area?'

Then, eight more chains appeared from the forbidden area one after another, in addition to the one that went after Lorraine, there were nine chains in total.

Except for the one that came first, the other eight chains flew randomly over the forbidden area, like a tentacled monster.

Nova and the other seniors of the Iridescent Sect felt their scalps tingling.

On the contrary, the four sisters were very excited.

After a while, the chain that went after Lorraine returned, and there was a person on the end of it.

It was Lorraine, who had just escaped.

At this moment, her body was bound tightly. She was unable to move, and her eyes showed a look of horror.

She knew where the chains came from.

It was one of the nine chains she saw in the cave beneath the forbidden area.

'How did the chain come alive?'

'Plus, it tied me up when I was powerless to fight back.'

'Did the master that my teachers mentioned do this?'

When she thought of this, Lorraine panicked on the inside.

This never happened when she was facing her four teachers.

However, the identities of the four teachers were of nothing but slaves.

If the master from a higher civilization wakes up, wouldn't she have no chance of winning?'

Lorraine struggled with everything she had.

However, no matter what she did, she could not break free from the chains on her body.

Her heart slowly sank.

She knew that no matter how hard she tried, it would be futile.

The opponent's ability was simply not something she could resist.

Perhaps this was her fate.

At this moment, Lorraine was a little disheartened.

Even though she had already discovered her teachers' purpose in advance, she hid her strength the entire time to have the highest chance of escaping, she still failed to escape her destiny.

Nova and others were shocked when they saw the whole process.

A chain was sent out to catch and bring back a Pre-Saint who had no power to fight back at all.
