

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2095

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2095-“David, as a partial Pre-Deity, can't you make your own decisions? Do you have to ask others about this matter? Even if you ask, you have to find the right person! How can the ants here be qualified to speak? It's useless to ask them because they don't dare to answer anyway,” Azul could not help mocking.

It was the greatest insult to him to leave his fate to these Saints who were just ants.

Sid, Zenon, and others were even more afraid to speak after hearing that.

Saints would already feel intense psychological pressure when faced with the partial Pre-Deity that had already ignited the Divine Fire. In addition to that, Azul also came from a level 9 civilization.

How would they dare to offend him?

David narrowed his eyes and looked at Azul with murderous intent.

‘Um..’

Azul, who was still smiling at first, stopped suddenly as if someone was choking him.

Whether Azul admitted it or not, he already had a strong sense of fear toward David after the near-death battle just now.

If David took advantage of the victory to pursue Azul just now and insisted on killing him, Azul might not be around right now.

One could even say that Azul had just walked through the gates of hell.

Even now that his body had recovered, he still felt some lingering fear in his heart.

Anyone who was not a Pre-Deity would not be able to handle the siege of four partial Pre-Deities as well as two sneak attacks.

Even Leila's top geniuses would be no different if they were in partial Pre-Deity Rank.

“Azul, you must know that I'm giving you a chance to live by asking them. If I were to follow my own wishes, I would have killed you right now no matter the cost. As for whether your family will come to seek revenge, that is something to be decided in the future.”

After David finished speaking these words that were full of murderous intent, he looked at Azul coldly, sending a chill down the other party's spine.

'This kid wouldn't really kill me without any hesitations, would he?

'No, he won't!

'David is from Star Kingdom. He has lived here since he was a child, and his relatives and friends are all here.

So, Star Kingdom is definitely important to David.

'He won't gamble the lives of his relatives and friends as well as the lives of countless humans in Star Kingdom.

'If he loses, it'll be too late for him to regret his decision.'

Azul kept comforting himself in his heart.

He was genuinely a little scared.

If he had known this would happen, he would have left without hesitation once he got the Ice Soul Excalibur.

'What am I doing here? Am I courting death?

'No!

'If I had known that there were four partial Pre-Deities hidden in Star Kingdom, I wouldn't have bothered with the Ice Soul Excalibur.

'I would have fled!'novelxo

David paused for a few seconds before continuing, "And even if we let you go, will Star Kingdom be safe? I don't think so! Who can guarantee that you won't go back to your word like you did just now? If you go back and bring your family to seek revenge, the result will still be the same, no? I was deceived by you once, so your words are no longer credible to me. Since Star Kingdom may be exposed whether you are killed or not, it is better to just kill you, don't you think so?"

Azul's heart jumped wildly when he heard David's slow and leisurely words.

Judging from the killing intent emanating from David, he could see that David genuinely wanted to kill him.

It seemed that David was still brooding over how Azul betrayed his promise after he got the Ice Soul Excalibur just now.

After Azul thought about it, it was no surprise.

No one would believe a person who had just broken his trust. It was too late to say anything now.

Recommended Novels