

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2099

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2099-David's sudden attack stunned everyone present, including Azul.

'Didn't David agree to reconcile and let me go?

'Why isn't he following the rules?'

The main form and the three clones, a total of four partial Pre-Deities, emitted their maximum energy at the same time. The scene was too shocking.

One of the clones held the God of Thunder Hammer and smashed Azul's head with it.

For the other two clones, one casted Void Punch while the other swung the Ice Soul Excalibur and produced a white sword light, trapping Azul in the middle.

David himself held the Evil-Splitting Sword in his hand and got ready to deliver the final blow as Azul was desperately fleeing.

Of course, they were also preventing Azul from taking desperate measures when he knew that he would die and drag everyone down with him.

It did not matter if the clones were injured or dead. It was just a drop of blood, and it would not hurt the main form anyway.

David was controlling the four bodies himself, so the tacit cooperation was perfect.

It could even be described as seamless.

Azul reacted immediately, but the attack of the three partial Pre-Deities reached him instantly.

At this moment, Azul also understood David's intention.

Asking the others, getting a vote of 5 to 2, and letting him go were all bloody lies.

The purpose was to give Azul hope, make him lower his guard, and then launch a surprise attack.

It would be best to kill Azul before he could react.

That way, David could finish the job without anyone noticing.

Azul understood the intention, but it was a bit late.

He did not have time to think about anything else.

Azul could not think of any way to resist the full blow of the three partial Pre-Deities in yet another surprise attack.

There was another one watching covetously, ready to make a move at anytime.

This was almost a do-or-die situation.

With Azul's current state, it was very likely that he would be killed in one hit, but Azul was not about to give up.

As a direct descendant of the Feather family in Leila and the one who had awakened his innate skill and held the highest possible status, he had to make his enemies pay a heavy price even in death.

"Burn! My soul!" Azul said silently in his heart.

In desperation, he cast the Feather family's super forbidden technique-Soul Blaze.

Once Soul Blaze was cast, even if Azul could survive, his life would be completely ruined.

This was unless there was a miracle. Otherwise, he would never become a Pre-Deity in the future.

However, judging from the current situation, the probability of Azul's surviving was very low, so there was no need for him to think about the future.

Boom!

An energy several times larger than Azul's own erupted from his body.

His entire body was wrapped in the Blue Light.

Even though Soul Blaze was amazing, it could not upgrade Azul from partial Pre-Deity to Pre-Deity.

That gap was too big.

Azul's state after casting Soul Blaze was equivalent to the strongest among partial Pre-Deities.

Facing the sneak attack of three partial Pre-Deities, he was still on the weak side, but at least he would not be killed with one blow, and could still resist.

Boom!novelxo

The first attack, the God of Thunder Hammer, reached him.

After touching the Blue Light on the top of Azul's head, the huge force pushed the Blue Light down, and when it was about to hit Azul's head, a hand blocked the hammer.

Azul's newly grown left hand raised above his head, abruptly blocking David's clone's blow.

Of course, he was suffering too.

His left hand suffered a comminuted fracture under the force of the hammer.

Recommended Novels