

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2120

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2120-It was the same on Earth. Some tiny places and the two great empires had vastly different strengths, but there were also people struggling at the bottom.

The Milky Way and Star Kingdom were no exception.

However, after David got the system, his starting point was too high.

In addition to experiencing the lowest level of life on Earth before getting the system, no matter whether it was the Milky Way or the Star Kingdom, he would always get in contact with big families and powerful forces.

As soon as he arrived at the Milky Way, he met Astrid, the princess of the Milky Way Empire.

Not to mention Star Kingdom. He followed Celeste directly into the Iridescent Sect, and after leaving the Iridescent Sect, he met Alba and the Fellowes family, another powerful force.

In addition, David's strength had grown rapidly along the way, and it only took him very little time to peak.

Therefore, he actually did not know much about other civilizations outside the earth, especially the people at the bottom.

Now that he was in The Spirit Cage, those who ventured into Crow City and entered the Endless Forest could be said to be the people struggling at the bottom of Leila.

These people's knowledge was limited, and they were far from the upper-class people who live in the main city of The Spirit Cage.

The truth was not limited to what David knew. A level 9 civilization also had people at the bottom who were struggling on the verge of life and death every day.

Of course, the awesome ones are indeed awesome, but not all of them were awesome.

Most of them have had a hard time.

The upper-class people with strong power and high status were, after all, very few.

After arriving at Crow City Plaza, David finally saw a sea of people.

The entire plaza was densely packed with people.

The tall people were fine, but the short ones could only see the heads in front of them.

Fortunately, David was 1.8 meters tall, so he was considered tall in the crowd, and he could roughly see what was happening on the high platform in front of him.

He saw the corpse of a silver-white python lying there.

There were five or six luxuriously dressed people around who were watching the python closely and touching it with their hands from time to time.

'Isn't that the little snake that I punched and killed when I first entered this place?'

One of the old men spoke, "The Silver Flood Dragon has not been dead for a long time, and the body is well preserved. This is the best of the best. My family is willing to pay 12 billion L Dollars to buy it. What do you think, Mr. Ledger?"

'12 billion L Dollars?'

Upon hearing this number, countless exclamations were immediately heard in the plaza.

Those who came to the Endless Forest to take risks were basically the lowest-tier of people who wanted to try their luck.

They had never seen 100 million, or even 10 million before, let alone 12 billion L Dollars.

With such a large amount of money, no matter in the real world or The Spirit Cage, one could live quite luxuriously in the upper class.

Everyone looked enviously at a middle-aged man on the high platform.

He was the one who brought the Silver Flood Dragon back from the Endless Forest – Maximus.

"Old Master Rowe, of course, I am willing to sell it to you, but since there are so many people here today, I am just a small fry and I dare not offend anyone, so the one who offers the highest price will get it. If the price you offer is the highest, then the Silver Flood Dragon naturally belongs to your family, Old Master Rowe," Maximus said with a smile.

At this moment, he was in high spirits.

He had been in the adventure world for so many years and he had been to many places.

Moreover, he had also experienced various life and death tests.

However, none of them could kill him.

Maximus never dreamed that he would have a day when he would turn himself around.

To be honest, he ran into the Silver Flood Dragon's corpse not long after he came to the Endless Forest.

Now, Maximus was wondering how he should spend the money he was going to get.

As for sharing it with the family of his dead teammates, it was impossible.

He killed them for the money, so how would he share it?

Only fools would do that.

Wouldn't it be nice to spend the money alone?
