I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2137-“Why are you targeting me?” David turned around and asked helplessly.

“Why am I targeting you? Why do you think I’m targeting you? It’s because you are the most idle person here! When we were fighting, you were afraid of death and didn’t participate, and now when it’s time for labor, you’re also trying to escape, so I want to ask you, why are you here?” Nas asked.

“Fine, I’ll leave, okay? I quit and I don’t want the reward anymore.”

As David spoke, he jumped off the carriage.

Originally, he wanted to go to Nightingale City with the Nacht family and learn more about The Spirit Cage on the way, but now it seemed that he could only go alone.

He was fine either way.

As long as he could spend L Dollars in The Spirit Cage, David would be very happy.

Everything else was just trivial.

He could also slowly understand The Spirit Cage.

“Hmph, you’re pretty smart. Kid, let me tell you, you can’t get my family’s money so easily. If you want to take our money, you have to work for us. I’ve seen a lot of liars like you. You have no skills and you would scam people under the guise of being an adventurer, but too bad you ran into me today!” Nas sneered.

David shrugged and did not argue with Nas.

He did not need to take this hollering ant in front of him seriously.

Just when David was about to leave, Beanie came over.

After she checked the body of Silver Flood Dragon, she heard Nas talking loudly so she walked over.

As soon as she got closer, she spotted the good-looking young man who was dressed like a pampered son of a rich family.

In terms of age, he was even younger than Nas.

‘Why is there such a person in my team?’

'Why did I have no idea about him?'

Beanie was puzzled.

In this team, there were adventurers who were hired to escort the goods apart from the Nacht family.

'He can't be an adventurer, right?'

"What's going on?" Beanie asked.

"Aunt Beanie, this kid is an adventurer we paid for, but he didn't do anything. He was hiding when we were fighting the Chez family. Now that everyone is digging holes to bury the dead, he is the only one not doing anything. Why should we hire such an adventurer? Anyone who doesn't know will think he is an employer! I really don't know how the people did the screening process. How could such a person pass?" Nas huffed angrily.

Beanie looked at David.

Naturally, David looked at the other party fearlessly.

No matter how powerful the Nacht family was in Leila, they were in The Spirit Cage now and he could easily destroy them all.

When one had the strength, one would not fear anything.

"Is that so?" Beanie asked, looking at David.

"Don't falsely accuse me. I understand that I should help others avert disaster since I've taken their money, and I did. It's just that you didn't see me doing it," David argued.

"Nonsense! You have been hiding here this entire time. When did you contribute? You are just a liar! How dare you say that you have contributed? Quickly hand over the money you were paid and get out! Don't let me see you again, or I'll hit you every time I see your face!" Nas warned angrily.

"You didn't see my contribution, but it doesn't mean that I didn't contribute. Of course, I can't do anything if you don't believe me. I'll go then! I won't pay you back the little money you gave me. I believe that I am still worth that much."

David was ready to leave after speaking.

However, Beanie stopped him.

She asked, "My friend, what's your name?"

"My name is David Lidell! May I know how I can help you, Miss?" David replied.

'David Lidell?'

Beanie thought about the name carefully.

'I don't think there is a major family in Nightingale City and the surrounding cities that has the surname Lidell.

'Either he came from somewhere else, or he just entered The Spirit Cage.'

Seeing David's appearance and clothes, Beanie knew that he was definitely not an ordinary person.

"Are you an adventurer?"

"Yeah! Is there a problem?"

"You punk, watch how you f*cking talk to my aunt! Believe it or not, HI kill..."
