I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2140-Otherwise, she would have been in trouble.

Nas and Nivia were resting in another carriage for fear of disturbing Beanie.

Not long after, Beanie opened her eyes and exhaled.

Thankfully, her injuries were not that serious.

She was fine after some medicine.

An idea formed in her mind.

The powerhouse who took action secretly had unfathomable strength. No one could find him even after he injured the others, which was enough to show his strength.

Such a strong person would never appear here for no reason, let alone save others for no reason.

There must be a certain reason why he had acted.

According to Beanie's guess, it might have something to do with the outstanding young man named David.

Judging from Beanie's many years of experience in reading people, David was not a simple person.

Some things could not be faked.

It would not work with just an outfit change.

To put it simply, no matter how gorgeous the clothes a beggar put on, he was still a beggar, and he would never become an aristocrat.

It would be reflected in his eyes, temperament, demeanor, and tone of voice.

David's eyes were firm, his temperament was extraordinary, his demeanor calm, and his tone of voice was neither humble nor arrogant no matter when he was talking to Nas or her.

These were simply not things that an ordinary adventurer would have.

Even when Nas said he would not give him money and asked him to leave, David did not show any fluctuations in his emotions nor change the look in his eyes. He was still as calm as water.

Some details often best explained the situation.

Beanie could feel from David's eyes that he was looking down on all living beings.

Only by staying in a high position for a long time could one cultivate this kind of gaze.

Thus, Beanie judged that the powerhouse who took action in secret was probably here to protect David.

This could also explain why there had been no one around David when everyone was fighting and he did not have a single wrinkle in his clothes.

It was because no one could get close to him at all.

Not only that, when questioned by Nas, David also said that he contributed, and it was just that no one had seen it.

He was indirectly saying that he should get the credit for saving everyone.

That was why Beanie yelled at Nas when he was being disrespectful to David.

If the strength of his bodyguard was so terrifying, one could only imagine how powerful the force behind David was.

Were they people that the Nacht family could offend?

One bodyguard alone could wipe out the Nacht family.

After they returned, it might just be time to hold a meeting to study the matter regarding their family heir.

Judging from Nas's performance these days, he did not have the vision and heart required by the head of a family at all.

It was not a wise decision to hand over the family to him.

It was a pity that Nivia was a daughter.

No matter how good she was, she was destined not to be the head of the Nacht family, and at most, she could only be like Beanie.

However, what Beanie could not understand was why a noble guy like David would join the team of adventurers recruited by the Nacht family.

'Is this training for him?

'Or is there another purpose?'

Beanie thought for a long time, but could not think of a reason.

Hence, she decided to forget it.

'Who cares!

'Judging from how the other party saved me, they should be no hostility towards the Nacht family. That's enough for me.'
