I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2159-On the way back to Nightingale City from the Demon Ridge, a young man was riding a Foal Beast.

It was the Nacht family's first-in-line heir Nas.

At this moment, his face was filled with a sinister smile that would send shivers down other's spines.

After being rejected by Beanie in joining the trip to Sole and getting threatened with a senior meeting to centered around replacing him as the heir after she came back, Nas went mad.

He would have nothing without the status of heir.

So, in order to ensure that he could continue to live with ease, he did not hesitate to betray his family. He went to the Demon Ridge first to expose the secrets of the Beast Crystal to those vicious robbers.

His purpose was so that Beanie and her party would never return.

As long as they were dead, he would keep his position.

Moreover, even if Beanie survived, the Silver Flood Dragon and the Crystal inside it would be gone.

If she lost those two things, Beanie would be the Nacht family's sinner.

Her status in the Nacht family would also decline rapidly.

She would lose the trust of the head and her words would no longer be as effective as they were now. No one would listen to her anymore.

By then, Beanie would not be a threat to his status as the heir to the Nacht family.

This was Nas' last crazy gamble to protect himself.

Regardless of the result, it would definitely be good for Nas.

It would be best if Beanie died, but it would all be over for her even if she did not.

It was unlikely that she would continue to serve as the person in charge of the Nacht family at The Spirit Cage.

Nas did not consider any other possibilities at all.

In his opinion, a third situation would not occur at all.

Until now, he still remembered the expressions of the leading robbers of the Demon Ridge when they heard the Crystal was worth nearly 100 billion L Dollars.

They were ecstatic and they could not hide the greed in their eyes.

They would never let go of this great opportunity to get rich overnight.

Even if it would enrage the Nacht family, they would not hesitate.

Besides, the Nacht family of Nightingale City was doing much worse than the Beam family in Sole.

As long as they could get the Beast Crystal, everyone would divide the money after selling it. Then, they could leave the Demon Ridge and live happily someplace else.

Beanie would never be able to win when facing the combination of so many forces in the Demon Ridge.

Nas was very excited now.

He felt that his plan was foolproof.

There was no way that the robbers would stay here after they got the Beast Crystal.

When the people from the Nacht family came to the Demon Ridge, the robbers would be long gone.

Furthermore, the Nacht family would never have thought that it was he who revealed their secrets.

He would do all of this without anyone noticing.

After this incident, most of the robbers at the Demon Ridge would be gone.

Nas betrayed and sacrificed the Nacht family whilst benefitting the surrounding merchants.

However, it was a pity he could not say it out loud.

Nas shook his head and hurried back to Nightingale City happily.

After he got the news of the deaths of Beanie and the others, he would be able to relax.

The atmosphere at the scene was a little weird in the second half of The Demon Ridge.

Beanie was in a state of extreme rage.

She would never have expected the first-in-line of the Nacht family to betray her and the family.
