I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2165-David and Beanie walked into the depths of the trading street. The people who came here were all riding in luxurious carriages.

On both sides of the street were shops where they could buy and sell treasures. Carriages were parked at some of the entrances, apparently there to conduct business.

David and Beanie's target this time was a store called Treasure Pavilion.

There were a lot of carriages going back and forth around them.

Beanie also brought a carriage, which contained the body of Silver Flood Dragon.

For a beast at the level of the Silver Flood Dragon, its corpse would not rot for some time even if it was dead, let alone emit a bad smell.

Not long after, they saw a large store on the street with the words 'Treasure Pavilion' written on it.

This seemed to be the place they were looking for.

Beanie asked the carriage behind them to stop in front of Treasure Pavilion. Then, the two stepped through the gate of Treasure Pavilion and entered the hall.

The moment they did that, something shot out from the innermost part of the shop. Its speed was so fast that with Beanie's strength, she could only see a small black shadow flashing away.

When this small figure was about to escape from Treasure Pavilion, the door closed suddenly.

Boom!

"Ouch!"

The shadow hit the door and bounced back, landing right next to David and Beanie.

The two of them looked at the shadow closely.

It turned out to be a little girl about seven or eight years old. She was very cute, and she looked similar to a porcelain doll. She had a smile on her flushed face which made her look as if she had walked out of a painting, but her body was a little dirty.

She was sitting on the ground covering her forehead with her hands, a pained expression on her face.

Apparently, the collision just now hurt her.

At this time, the lights in the hall of the Treasure Pavilion came on.

Then, someone said through gritted teeth, "Little brat, I finally caught you."

Then, more than a dozen guards ran out from the side room of the Treasure Pavilion and quickly surrounded the little girl, David, and Beanie.

Before David and Beanie could understand what was going on, they were surrounded.

Finally, a middle-aged man walked into the hall.

The guards automatically stepped aside.

When the middle-aged man saw the two of them, he was taken aback for a moment.

When he saw the extraordinary air around David and Beanie, he asked politely, "Who are you two?"

"Are you the owner of Treasure Pavilion?" Beanie asked back.

"Exactly! My name is Thor Rivers, the boss of Treasure Pavilion. May I know who you are?"

"Hello, Mr. Rivers, we are here to sell!"

"Customers! I'm sorry for being so rude," Thor said apologetically.

"Mr. Rivers, what are you doing?" Beanie asked curiously.

"Oh, you have no idea. This little brat on the ground is a well-known thief on the trading street. So many people have suffered since she came to the trading street three months ago. Nobody knows how many treasures have been lost and the place has been in chaos. Everyone is in danger. The main reason is that she only steals priceless treasures. In order to catch her, we did everything possible. We almost caught her several times, but in the end, we couldn't bear to hurt her, so she managed to flee. This time, I finally caught her!" Thor explained.

Upon hearing this, David and Beanie looked at the little girl beside them.

Their faces were full of disbelief.

A seven or eight-year-old daughter caused so much chaos in the trading street and no one could catch her for three months?

Who would believe this?

However, the two accepted this very quickly.

Judging from the little girl's speed, she was not to be underestimated.

No ordinary person could catch her.

"Mr. Rivers, where is she from? How is she so powerful?" Beanie asked.

"I have no idea. She came to the trading street of Sole three months ago and then started living here. She will only steal treasures from others and since she's small and fast. Since no one has the heart to hurt her, it was hard for us to capture her.
