I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2185-Since David repaid the 500 billion L Dollars debt for Pebbles, the two of them were well-known on the trading street in Sole. Moreover, it was evident how strong David was.

These businessmen and bosses all wanted to please him, so they would find him as soon as they had something good.

While earning money, they could simultaneously make David remember them.

Of course, David was open to all sellers.

He would take the lavish points that were delivered to his door.

Beanie was kind of like David's housekeeper now and she would take care of his daily life.

She was supposed to go back after selling the Silver Flood Dragon.

However, when she contacted the head of the Nacht family, she told him about what happened at Demon Ridge and David the big shot.

In the end, both the Nacht family's head and Beanie believed that this opportunity to rely on someone powerful could not be missed.

If she left, she might never see him again.

The Nacht family wanted to find a strong backer and David was undoubtedly the best choice.

Besides, if Beanie stayed with David, he would not sit idly by if the Nacht family was in trouble.

With that, Beanie transferred the money from selling the Silver Flood Dragon and Beast Crystal to the head of the Nacht family to solve the economic crisis first.

Then, she stayed in Sole with complete peace of mind. She would do David's chores for him and help him deal with the trivial matters in life.

Due to this, it would not be easy for David to drive her away. Plus, he genuinely needed someone who knew The Spirit Cage to help him, so he accepted Beanie's company.

For convenience, he also bought a mansion in the most prosperous area of Sole and got another sum of lavish points.

After this, the trio temporarily stayed in Sole.

To be honest, Beanie envied the little girl Pebbles very much.

She got such a favor from David not long after they met.

If only she had such an intimate relationship with David.

Wouldn't the Nacht family use this advantage to rise rapidly?

However, even though she was envious, Beanie did not think that she should be closer to David since she had known him longer.

She had this self-awareness.

Sole was a second-tier city and even though it was not comparable to the first-tier city or the main city in The Spirit Cage, it was still pretty prosperous.

The forces in the city were intricate and no one power could dominate the place by itself.

Everyone was restricting each other.

In addition to humans, there were many other races living here as well.

However, the human race was still the main force.

After all, The Spirit Cage was created by the strong human race and it was made specially for human beings to enhance their soul power.

If other races wanted to enter The Spirit Cage, they must obtain the consent of humans and use human equipment.

Naturally, there were many more human races than other races in The Spirit Cage.

Holding Pebbles in his arms, David walked on the bustling streets of Sole, followed by the enchanting and beautiful Beanie.

Many people were coming and going.

A small part of them looked rather bizarre and they were obviously different from humans, but they were all in human form.

These were alien races living in Leila.

The aliens who could enter The Spirit Cage did not have a low status.

This was because The Spirit Cage was not open to other races except humans without restriction.

If a foreign race wanted to enter The Spirit Cage, they needed certain qualifications.

Naturally, it was impossible for the bottom-tier races to have this opportunity.

“Ms. Nacht!” David called out suddenly.

“What do you need?” Beanie hurried forward.

She had begun to gradually adapt to her identity.

She would treat David like her master.

The transition from the second in command of the Nacht family to David’s servant was quite a big one.

The Nacht family was indeed not big in Leila, but it was also one of the top forces on Planet Lucio.

Beanie, as the second in command, had a certain authority in the Nacht family.

In addition to that, after coming to The Spirit Cage, she was in charge of everything about the Nacht family.

Even so, the present change of status was voluntary and what she wished for.
