

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2195

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2195-Once the black cloth was removed, the content was revealed.

David stared intently.

'There are a few human women inside!

'Is this human trafficking?

'This is a bit too much!'

Frowning slightly, David could not accept it.

Even though there was a slave trade in the Milky Way, he still could not understand it.

In his opinion, they could sell anything but humans.

'Wait.'

David watched carefully for a moment.

He saw that although the women in the cage looked similar to human women, there were some differences.

'First of all, humans would not have pointed ears.

'Plus, their faces were too delicate and stunning.

'They are simply...'

For a while, David could not find words to describe them.

Descriptions such as devastatingly beautiful or exceptional beauty could not even begin to describe them.

It was as if they had an indescribable beauty.

He couldn't just call them pretty because which one of the women here beside David was not?

At least 90%, 95%, or even 98% of them were all top-notch beauties.

However, the faces in the cage felt different from Selena and Astrid's beauty, which was top-notch among humans.

It was not that they were prettier than either of them, but they lacked the human touch.

If David wanted to use a word to describe them, it would be ethereal.

One would not even bear to tarnish them.

Coupled with their pointed ears and the fear of the unknown revealed in their eyes, quoting from what Earthlings would say, 'Aren't they angels who had fallen from heaven?'

Plus, these women also exuded some particular fragrance that would make anyone smelling it felt good.

It had been a while since he first came to The Spirit Cage, so David did not have the ignorance he had when he first came.

He had seen a lot of alien races other than humans.

However, he had never seen this race in the cage.

While David was lost in thought, there were countless exclamations all around.

"F*ck me, aren't they the legendary Elves?"

"Yeah! Where did Lord Black Fox get them?"

"Lord Black Fox is too awesome! The Elves are sparsely populated so not everyone can have them, even in Leila. If a big shot doesn't have a few Elf women, they would seem inferior to others, let alone at The Spirit Cage.'

"I know, right? I can't believe that Lord Black Fox was able to get these Elf women. I've truly seen everything today."

Everyone looked at the women locked in the cage on the platform. Their eyes were sparkling and their lust evident.

In the real world Leila, they were not qualified to own Elves.

Now in The Spirit Cage, Black Fox gave them a chance.

Many people secretly decided in their hearts that they had to buy one and bring her home.

Then, they could enjoy the treatment that only the big shots could.

After that, they have the capital to brag, right?

If anyone dared to brag in front of them, they could just say that they had been served by an Elf woman.