

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2196

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2196-That would surely shut them up.

The Elf women were the gold standard for top figures of the entire level 9 civilization Leila.

It would be very difficult for people like them to have a chance to see the Elf women.

Therefore, they did not expect to have the opportunity to participate in the competition today.

At the same time, everyone was also full of doubt.

Since Black Fox could get these Elf women, why did he not auction them off in first-tier cities or even the main city?

There were so many major forces over there.

If he spread the word a little, it would surely cause a stir in the audience, especially among those big-spending and spoiled kids with strong backgrounds.

They were not eligible to be rewarded with Elf women by their families, but they wanted to enjoy the services of the Elf women too. So if they were given this capital to show off in their circle, the competition for the Elf women would be very fierce.

The price would also be ridiculously high.

After all, Sole was only a second-tier city, so the maximum of this place would not be able to touch the minimum of first-tier cities, let alone the main city.

This was the gap that could not be filled.

It was totally unreasonable for Black Fox to bring the Elf women here and let everyone compete. He would never maximize the benefits.

The masked man who lifted the black cloth spoke.

“I’m sure you saw what’s in here. That’s right, the auction items this time are Elf women. All of you should know how rare Elf women are, so I don’t need to introduce them.”

After he said that, someone from the audience immediately said, “You don’t have to! Start now! I can’t wait anymore! I feel so sorry for those chicks and I can’t wait to warm them up!”

“I think you’re the one who can’t wait for them to give you warmth! Haha!”

“Haha! Same thing! It’s the same thing!” That person did not hide his desire at all.

“You can’t say that too soon. Who here doesn’t want these Elf women? Are you sure you can get your wish?” Someone retorted.

“Hmph! You don’t have to worry about me. I’m prepared for today! No one can take them away from me! Those Elf women are mine!”

The rest of the audience was all talking among themselves. Clearly, they were very surprised that they were going to bid on the Elf women.

This was also the first time they had such close contact with the Elf women and smell their special fragrance.

The masked man on the platform interrupted everyone and continued, “Everyone, don’t worry! Since Lord Black Fox entrusted me with this matter, I will surely do my best. The Elves are well-known in Leila. Although they often send women who have been trained to Leila’s major forces to survive, there aren’t a lot of them to go around since they were so rare.

“In addition to the unbearable beauty of the Elf women, as well as their special service, their owners can enjoy a different kind of happiness. Over time, the Elf women have gradually become the standard for Leila’s big shots. Anyone who doesn’t have Elf maids would become a joke in the circle.

“Therefore, you can imagine the value of the Elf women. In the real world Leila, they are exclusive to the nobles and it’s very rare for us to see them. But now, in The Spirit Cage, we won’t only see them, but also touch them. Now, tell me, do you want to own them?”

“Yes!” The people at the scene replied loudly.

Greedy looks appeared in their eyes.

David looked at the people going mad around him.

Thor was also one of them.

'What Elves?

'To put it bluntly, aren't they just women?'

However, David could understand.

He had seen crazier scenes than this.

When he was back on Earth, the meet-and-greet of those A-list female celebrities would be even more crazy than this.

These Elf women were similar to those super A-listers on Earth.

However, they behaved differently.

In Leila, nobody even had a chance to see these women.

Now, they even have a chance to touch their goddess. How many could still keep calm?

David looked at the Elf women in the cage and noticed something.

The five Elf women held each other with terrified expressions in their eyes. However, four of them were holding one of them in the middle on all sides. 'It seems like they are protecting her.'