I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2210-Meanwhile, David was also mulling the situation.

At the underground trade fair, he did see how extraordinary Evie was.

However, he did not expect that she was the Elven Princess and the future Elven Queen.

Although David did not know the structure of the Elves' rights hierarchy, he knew that Evie's status among the Elves was definitely not low.

She was a princess now and a queen in the future.

So, how could her status be low?

"So you are the Elven Princess. No wonder the four Elf women were protecting you all the time. Don't worry, Princess Evie, I promise I won't touch you." David promised Evie.

"Thank you for understanding, Master David!"

Evie gave David a special curtsy of the Elves.

Then she continued, "Master David, they have all followed me for many years. I hope you will treat them well in the future and don't let them be wronged."

"Oh, no! Princess Evie, you've misunderstood. I never wanted to keep them, so you should take them with you! When the time comes, I will send you all to Amber City." David waved his hands repeatedly and refused.

He never had such an idea.

He had yet to take care of his women problems, so why would he ask for more trouble?

"What do you mean?" Evie was confused.

"Princess Evie, I didn't buy you for any purpose. Whether you leave or stay, I will not touch you and I will not expect anything in return."

Evie looked at David. She saw that he did not seem to be lying, so she thanked him again. "Thank you, Master David."

"Thank you, Master David!" The other four Elf women also spoke one after another.

As servants of Princess Evie, they had no autonomy.

If Evie said to follow David, they must follow David.

The Elves' hierarchy was very strict.

The Elven Queen was the one with the most authority to control all Elves.

Next up were the elders and princesses of the Elves.

Hence, Evie's status was quite extraordinary.

It stood to reason that she was second in rank after the Elven Queen.

However, she did not have as much power as an elder now, and she could only wait for her succession to the queen's position to become the most powerful person among the Elves.

However, this journey was destined to be full of ups and downs, and Evie still had a long, long way to go.

"It's okay! You don't need to thank me. It's just a small matter. Just think of me as doing a good deed." David waved his hand.

"It might be a small matter to you, but it's a great kindness for us. If it weren't for you, I don't know what kind of encounter I would face. As the Elven Princess, once I lose my virginity, it will be a catastrophe for me and my entire race will be shamed because of this. So, Master David, you must visit us as a guest in the future," Evie said seriously.

"Okay! Okay! Princess Evie, you are too kind. If I have a chance in the future, I will definitely visit you all as a guest."

"Then it's settled, Master David. You must come and I will receive you with the highest standard of hospitality. When the time comes, I will let you taste the tea brewed with the Water of Life."

“Sure!” David said perfunctorily.

He did not know about the Elves at all, so naturally he did not know what the Water of Life from the Fountain of Youth was.

When Beanie heard the Water of Life, she could not help swallowing.

She was wondering if she could visit the Elves as a guest with Master David to taste the efficacy of the Water of Life. She wanted to know if it was as magical as it was said in the legend.

Next, Beanie took Evie and the others to shower and change their clothes.

They had been locked up for so long that they were dirty and smelly. Yet, the smell was masked by their special fragrance.

At night.

When everyone was resting, a group of masked men arrived outside the mansion where David lived.

All of these people were powerhouses and they surrounded the mansion.
