

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2211

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2211-Although the people Beanie arranged for night patrol were all elite guards from the Nacht family, they were still much inferior to the masked men in black.

When the guards saw the men in black, they were killed before they could realize what was going on and cry for help. They fell to the ground and died.

Then the door opened.

A middle-aged man walked in first.

As soon as this person arrived, all the other men in black cupped their fists and bowed in respect.

“Master Conway, all the guards have been taken care of.” The leader of the men stood and said respectfully.

“Okay, well done, have you surrounded this place?” asked the middle-aged man.

“Yes, Master Conway. We can guarantee that not even a fly can fly out, let alone humans.”

“Very good! I’d like to see who dares steal from me. This is the first time I’ve met someone in Sole who dared to disrespect the Macee family,” the middle-aged man sneered.

When David heard the voice, he could tell who this person was. It would not matter even if the other party changed his voice.

It was the person who competed with him for the Elven Princess Evie in the underground trade fair.

Yet in the end, he failed because he did not have enough money.

The Macee family was a first-rate family in Sole.

The current mayor of Sole was Lord Basil Macee of the Macee family.

Right now, the Macee family was at the height of their power in Sole.

The other major forces must be courteous to them.

However, the strength of the Macee family also made some of the direct descendants of the Macee family start to feel complacent.

They figured that as long as they were in Sole, they would be the king and they would not need to worry about anyone.

No matter who came to Sole, they would have to bow down to the Macee family.

And the middle-aged man was one of the highest-ranking descendants of the Macee family, Master Conway.

However, he was not the first-in-line heir of the Macee family because there was another incredibly talented guy in the Macee family.

Ever since the five Elf women were forcibly bought by David at a super high price, he began to mobilize the forces of the Macee family to search for David's identity and trace him immediately after the fair.

Even if the people who participated in the underground trade fair wore masks to hide their identities, he only needed some time to find out who David was with the power of his family in Sole.

Coupled with David's generosity in helping Pebbles pay off her debts on the trading street, he already had a certain reputation.

Conway quickly found David, the guy who had suddenly appeared in Sole.

To prevent the Elf women from being 'defiled' by David, he immediately gathered his people and rushed to David's residence.

While preparing to steal the five Elf women and teaching David an unforgettable lesson, he also wanted to see how much money this kid had. If David could not finish spending his money, Conway would help him spend some.

According to Conway's investigations, David had already spent trillions of L Dollars not long after he arrived in Sole.

This money was nothing to the whole Macee family but to Conway, it was a huge number.

As the young master of the Macee family, he had never seen so much money before.