I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2218-The Macee family in Sole.

At this time, the Macee family could only be described as joyous.

All the senior members of the Macee family gathered in the meeting hall with serious expressions.

A person was lying on the floor of the meeting room.

It was Conway, the eldest direct descendant of the Macee family, whose neck was crushed by David.

Lord Basil of the Macee family, who was also the person in charge of the Macee family in The Spirit Cage and the mayor of Sole, sat on the main seat.

He looked around and said in a deep voice, "Everyone, what do you think?"

No one made a sound.

Conway, the eldest direct descendant of the Macee family, has died and this was no small matter.

No one dared speak without thinking.

A little carelessness might have serious consequences.

After waiting for a while, Basil continued, "Just say whatever you want to say. If no one speaks, I will call you one by one. Something so serious has happened and as the seniors of the family, you will go back to Leila if you don't have anything to say. Don't take up space here. Many people want to come to The Spirit Cage."

Basil was the number two of the Macee family and the head of the family in The Spirit Cage.

Now, he had become the mayor of Sole for this term. In the Sole Macee family in The Spirit Cage, his words carried enormous weight.

He could scold whoever he wanted and those who got scolded could only endure it.

If anyone dared to talk back, they would have to bear even more intense anger.

The lightest punishment would be getting expelled from The Spirit Cage and sent back to Leila.

A serious punishment might be getting crippled or beaten to death.

The seniors of the Macee family looked at each other in the room.

They did not want to speak and they all wanted someone else to do so instead.

As time passed by, second by second, Basil's face turned darker and darker in the main seat. One of the seniors stood and said, "Lord Basil, I think we have to be careful with how we handle this. We can't make a decision casually. We have to first assess the situation."

"What is the reason for this?" Basil asked.

"According to the people who were there, the other party is just a young man but possesses very strong strength. The young man only made one move, and they were powerless to fight back. Plus, he only suddenly appeared in Sole recently. We cannot act rashly without knowing his background under such circumstances.

Basil nodded.

"Okay, not bad! You've put your heart into analyzing this. At least you didn't propose to take someone to destroy the other party immediately while being blinded by rage."

The senior who spoke breathed a sigh of relief secretly, and at the same time, he felt happy inside.

'It seems that I did the right thing by standing up and speaking first.

'It is rare to get the affirmation of Lord Basil.'

"What about the others? Do you have any different opinions?" Basil continued to ask.

After that man took the lead, it would be easier for the second person.

Soon another stood up and said, "Lord Basil, I also agree with what Sage said just now. We should investigate thoroughly before we act, but we also need to send people to check on the enemy. We can't let him escape. Conway is the Macee family's eldest direct descendant. If we don't do anything, we will be looked down upon by other forces and become the joke of the town."

You're right. The honor of the Macee family cannot be trampled on. Conway is still the eldest direct descendant of the family. Even if he committed any heinous crimes, only we can deal with him. If others dare to make a move, they must bear the anger of the Macee family." Basil's eyes were full of hate.

Then one after another, the seniors of the Macee family stood up to express their opinions.

They were all about two main points.

First of all, the Macee family could not lose their dignity.

Secondly, they must understand the background of the enemy before they could avenge Conway.
