I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2223-The house that David bought was in a prosperous area of Sole. It occupied a large area and cost him a lot. Moreover, there were also houses around it.

Therefore, what happened in the front yard could be seen from the surrounding buildings.

Many forces saw Basil bringing people to David's place, the two standing off, and also the imminent battle.

They were all waiting for the battle.

They hoped that the Macee family would get into trouble so that they would stop being so arrogant.

Since Basil became the mayor of Sole, the Macee family had gradually become more powerful.

He wanted to get involved in everything to get benefits.

In addition to Conway Macee, the spoiled spendthrift, the Macee family in Sole gradually lost credibility.

If anyone could teach the Macee family a lesson, it was believed that most people would be very glad.

When David yelled, "One".

Basil also shouted, "Go!"

Not only did David move but all the powerhouses of the Macee family also moved simultaneously.

Since Pebbles, Beanie, Princess Evie, and the four Elf women were behind him, David was going to make this quick and not waste too much time with the Macee family to prevent the women from getting injured accidentally.

Compared with last night, this time David had increased his strength.

If David used 10% of his strength to kill Conway last night, now, he was using 30%.

Of course, this was just a metaphor.

How strong was David's specific combat power? Even he, the owner, was not clear.

Anyway, every time he made a move, he must try his best to hold it back, otherwise it might cause serious damage.

When he first entered The Spirit Cage, the little snake he killed with a light punch was regarded by others as a priceless beast. At that time, David knew that his combat power in this world was probably close to the extreme.

After all, in the real world, his mental power was already ridiculously strong.

Even if others had strength several levels higher than David, his mental power alone made it difficult for them to be on par with him.

It could be seen when he used his mind power to block Nek the Saint to save his own life when he was only Eternal Realm Ruler Rank.

Meanwhile, The Spirit Cage was the embodiment of mind power.

So, one's strength depended entirely on the strength of mind power.

This was David's capital in The Spirit Cage.

David let out his energy and a strong hurricane blew in the front yard, causing dust to fly everywhere.

As a result, the Macee family in the front yard could not open their eyes.

The people in the buildings in the distance also could not see the situation clearly because of the dust stirred by the hurricane.

When the dust cleared, everyone was dumbfounded and could not believe their eyes.

They saw hundreds of powerhouses from the Macee family lying motionless on the ground.

Even Basil, the second-in-charge of the Macee family and the mayor of Sole was stepped on by David, barely alive.

There was a deep look of horror in his eyes.

When David took action, the powerhouses he led also took action.

He wanted to take down David first but was blocked by a hurricane.

Before he could assess the situation, a burst of severe pain hit him and he lost the power to fight back.

At the same time, all the powerful members of the Macee family were lying on the ground. It was unknown whether they were dead or alive.

'He's too strong.

'He's so powerful that it's suffocating.'

Basil had also been to the first-tier city Wier, but he had never seen such a powerful person.

With David's strength, he would definitely be among the top even in a first-tier city like Wier, let alone a second-tier city like Sole.

'How did that wastrel Conway provoke such a character?'
