

I'm A Quadrillionaire

Chapter 2228

Chapter 2228

Even though David had become an Ancestral Deity, he still could not understand.

After all, he still knew too little.

The earth where he was born had not even reached level 1 in civilization, so how could he understand the things of the level 9 civilization?

Since he could not figure this out, David gave up.

He believed that as his strength became stronger, he would one day uncover the mystery of the universe and peek into its mysteries.

He continued to walk and he arrived at the gate of the yard. He was getting ready to see Celia and the others.

As soon as he opened the door, he saw two female disciples of the Iridescent Sect standing in front of the door.

The moment they saw David, the two female disciples clasped their fists together, knelt on the ground on one knee, and said excitedly, "Greetings, Master David! Welcome back, Master David!"

At the same time, they were thinking in their hearts, 'Is this the legendary Master David who saved Star Kingdom?

'He's so young!

'He looks more handsome than the photos circulated.

'He's so charming!

'If we can follow Master David and serve him as maids, we will have no regrets in this life.'

When the two were chosen to stand guard for David, they almost passed out with excitement.

They were looking forward to the day when Master David would come out so they could see him in the flesh.

Since they were working on shift and there were other people besides them, everyone hoped that they could run into David coming out when they were standing guard.

Now, the news about David had become widely spread.

Master David was the strongest person and also the savior of Star Kingdom.

He defeated a guy who came from a higher civilization to destroy Star Kingdom and saved the entire Star Kingdom.

It was also said that his strength had already surpassed the six Sacred Saints of Star Kingdom and had reached another realm.

The six Sacred Saints were in the past now.

Currently, everyone worshipped Master David.

They would be willing to wash his feet every day, let alone stand guard for him.

If anyone could have a little connection with Master David, they could do whatever they wanted in Star Kingdom.

Even the six Sacred Saints would have to pay respects to David when they saw him.

What kind of honor was that?

"What are you doing?" David asked curiously.

He was surprised to see the two beautiful women at the door when he stepped out.

"Master David, Lady Dream asked us to stand guard over you as she's worried that you won't find anyone once you come out. You can tell us anything you need and we'll tell Lady Dream immediately and solve it for you," one of the disciples said.

As she said that, she was staring at David.

An extraordinary glow was shining in her eyes.

She still could not believe that she ran into Master David coming out of his seclusion.

Was God looking after her?

If Master David took a fancy to her and let her be his maid, she would be able to go from rags to riches. Wouldn't she prosper?

David could see the two's excitement.

He wondered, 'Am I so popular now?

'It's clear that this is the first time they met me, but they're so excited.

'Is it because I leveled up so I become more attractive?

'Gosh!

'I guess it's not good for a man to be too attractive. I am the focus of all women no matter where I am.

'Plus, it's also always top-notch beauties.

'Luckily, I'm not a f*ckboy.

'If not, the women in the world would be in trouble.'

David felt helpless and thought arrogantly.

He wanted to say he did not need anything to make them leave.

However, he stopped when his words were at the tip of his tongue.

'Wouldn't it be a little too hurtful and rude to say that?

'Those girls worked so hard to stand guard here, rain or shine. Even though it's useless, they still did something good. At least, they're kind-hearted.'
