I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2243-As David looked at Pebbles in his arms, his heart filled with pity.

Although the little girl was a bit domineering and very possessive, not letting other women get close to David, she was still very likable in other aspects.

At least, that was how she acted with David.

Every time David went into seclusion to go back to the real world and complete a breakthrough, the little girl would guard the door and not allow anyone to disturb him.

She would stay as long as David was in seclusion.

At that time, if someone dared to barge in, Pebbles might risk her life defending David.

As for her domineering personality and strong possessiveness, David figured after some analysis that it was most likely caused by the environment in which she grew up.

After all, Pebbles could eat all kinds of treasures as a staple food and had no side effects.

Thus, her identity, background, and bloodline must be extraordinary.

For example, the Beast Crystal from a Silver Flood Dragon.

Could it be eaten directly?

If anyone else ate it directly without refining it, there would be a very high chance of them exploding and dying, let alone getting the benefits.

Even if they could survive, they would probably be crippled.

However, when Pebbles ate it, she just fell asleep and nothing happened.

This alone was not comparable to ordinary people.

Growing up in such an environment would definitely create a domineering character for the little girl.

Perhaps she was also the apple of her family's eyes and they would give her whatever she wanted.

David was not going to force Pebbles to think about her past or think about sending her back.

He would just go with the flow!

If she remembered by herself and wanted to go back, then he would send her back.

Or if the little girl's family found her, they could take her home.

Anyway, David was not going to take the initiative to look for her family in case the little girl started overthinking.

It was not that David could not afford to raise her anyway.

After making the decision, David had to start thinking about the next thing.

As Pebbles ate more and more, the value of the treasures of heaven and earth she consumed would get higher and higher.

In addition, the treasures that Thor sent each time were gradually decreasing.

If they continued to stay in Sole, David would not be able to satisfy the little girl anymore.

If he wanted to keep feeding her enough food, he had to leave Sole and go to a first-tier city.

The closest first-tier city was Wier and it would take about two months to travel.

David turned on the system and looked at his lavish points.

11432 points.

These were the lavish points he accumulated during this period, all thanks to Thor.

He had bought all the treasures of heaven and earth that he could buy in Sole. So, he would surely bring less the next time.

There were more than 11 thousand lavish points and they were quite a lot.

However, there was still a long way to go before David could get 18 thousand points.

There was roughly a 6000-point difference.

David needed 18 thousand lavish points to raise his Body and Mind to Ancestral level 10.

It was also the limit that he could reach for the time being.

If he wanted to upgrade again, he would need 100 thousand lavish points each time.

This was not easy to achieve.
