I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2246-What really influenced him to make this decision today was the fact that David had killed more than a hundred powerhouses from the Macee family.

When he heard the news, he was extremely horrified.

Being rich meant that David had a strong background, and it was not a big deal.

A lot of spoiled spendthrifts from powerful forces also had strong financial resources.

However, it was rare for them to have such a strong strength.

David must have a very high status in his family.

Such a character was worthy of Thor dropping everything to follow him.

That was how today's scene came about.

Two more days passed.

The little girl Pebbles finally woke up.

As soon as she woke, she clamored for something to eat.

"Davey, I'm hungry again!" The little girl looked at David with big eyes and complained.

David smiled bitterly when he heard this.

What kind of family could afford such a big spender?

"Pebbles, why don't we take a break first? Eating and sleeping all day long is not good for your body. You need to exercise too," David advised.

"No need! Davey, my body can digest it. There is no problem at all. I just want to eat quickly and grow up quickly. I feel that there should be something waiting for me to do. I can't waste any more time," the little girl said seriously.

David stared at Pebbles blankly upon hearing this.

'Little girl, did you remember anything?'

"Pebbles, do you remember anything?" David asked.

"I don't know. I just feel that there are a lot of things waiting for me to do, so I have to grow up quickly. I want to grow up quickly so I need to sleep and eat more. Davey, let me eat! Please? Davey, please? I need to grow up quickly," the little girl pouted and started simpering.

Well, even if Pebbles was a kid, she was still good at simpering.

"Pebbles, I can let you eat, but I'm about to go into seclusion for a while. I can't keep holding you. Can you sleep in the bed after you finish eating?"

"You want to go into seclusion again?"

"Yeah, I have to. I have to increase my strength to beat up the bad guys."

The little girl got out of David's embrace and stood on the ground. Then, she ordered, "Davey, go ahead! I will stand guard for you. I'll eat and sleep after you're done. Don't worry, I will not let anyone disturb you. I'll beat up anyone who dares to do that."

After she said that, she showed an adorably fierce expression while shaking her small fist.

Even though Pebbles was only a pre-teen, she was very strong.

Moreover, she had a dormant energy inside her that even David was astonished by.

Once it exploded, it would surely be earth-shattering.

"Pebbles, I don't need anyone to watch the door for me. You can just go to sleep in the bed after you're done eating, okay?" David asked probingly.

"No! No way! What you're doing is very important and you can't be disturbed! Or else, you will suffer serious consequences. I have to stand guard for you if not I can't rest assured," the little girl refused David's suggestion.

David had no other choice.

Going into seclusion was indeed important.

They would lose all their previous progress if someone disturbed them. They might even get hurt.

However, it was not the same for him.

If someone barged in after he went back to the real world, would they be able to find him?

However, the little girl was so concerned about him, so what could David say?
