I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2271-David looked at the woman charging toward him again. She was full of anger and murderous intent.

He really wanted to tell the other party that she must have gotten the wrong person.

However, the veiled woman did not give him a chance at all and started fighting at the slightest disagreement.

At this time, David was also boiling with rage.

'Since you want to fight, then let's go.

'We'll only talk about this after we're done.

'If I continue talking, she'll think that I'm scared of her.

'I'd like to see what she'll do when she finally realizes she got the wrong person.'

Immediately, he went forward to meet her.

The two sides collided again.

Boom! Crash! Pow!

Countless collision sounds could be heard.

Elven Queen Isa was getting more and more frightened as she fought.

'This little punk is so strong.

'I have already used 80% of my combat power, but I still can't take him down.

'Which force was he secretly cultivated by?

'He claims to be David Udell.

'However, there is no major family with the surname Lidell in Leila.'

The Elves had a good relationship with Leila's major forces so Queen Isa could be sure.

Among Leila's younger generation, there was no such person as David.

At least not on the surface.

It was hard to say if there was one hiding in the dark.

Some forces would cultivate the most talented direct descendants in secret, to avoid assassination by hostile forces and premature death.

As for the ones on the surface, they were all for attracting everyone's attention.

Queen Isa guessed that this punk named David in front of him was someone like that.

Otherwise, how could he have such a strong mind power at such a young age?

If his mind power was strong, then his strength in the real world would not be too far behind.

David was also surprised by Queen Isa's strength.

This was the first time he met an opponent who could make him fight seriously since entering The Spirit Cage,

Yet her little strength was far from enough to kill him.

Boom!

After one blow, the two sides retreated again.

In the two fights, David and Queen Isa could not do much to each other.

"You punk, your soul power is much stronger than I imagined. Which force secretly cultivated you as its successor? Tell me and I won't kill you today! But you also have to pay for what you did." Queen Isa looked at David in the distance and spoke first.

David was stunned once again.

'What is going on?'

He thought the woman in front of him has got the wrong person.

So, as a result, she started fighting him even when she did not know who he was.

What kind of person was that?

Until now, David still did not understand why this woman hated him so much and wanted to kill him.

"You don't even know who I am, but you want to kill me? How funny." David sneered.

"I'll ask you again, are you going to tell me?"

"It's not that I won't tell you, but you won't believe me even if I tell you," David spread his hands and said helplessly.

"How will you know that I won't believe you if you don't tell me."

"Then listen carefully, I, David Lidell, am not the successor of any force. I am me and I have never relied on anyone so far, so I think you must have gotten the wrong person and there is no need for us to continue fighting ."

"Are you kidding me?" Queen Isa stared at David, her eyes full of killing intent again.

Did he just say that she got the wrong person?

Evie was the Elven Princess and Isa raised her. So, how could she mistake Evie's energy?

"I told you that you won't believe me! Whatever, if you want to fight, I'll fight." David showed an indifferent attitude.

What needed to be said had been said.

What could David do if the other party refused to believe him?

"Very good! Since you won't tell me the truth, you can't blame me then. I can only beat you up and let your parents come to pick you up."

After Queen Isa finished speaking, her energy surged again.

This time, she would use all her strength to deal with this little punk.

She had to cripple David to vent the anger in her heart.

David looked at the woman whose energy was soaring again. Then, he put away his indifferent attitude and became serious. 4

Boom!

Boom!
