I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2272-Two beams of heavenly light shot up into the sky and dispersed the clouds.

Queen Isa's was green and David's was gold.

Beanie and the others, tens of kilometers away, were all stunned as they stared at the green and gold rays soaring into the sky in the distance.

Even though they were far away, they could feel two powerful pressures coming.

It was as if they had fallen into an ice cave.

They felt cold all over and could not move.

Those were the real powerhouses.

Evie knew that the green light must be from her mother, Queen Isa.

'So, does it mean that the golden light belongs to Master David?'

The two rays of light were almost evenly matched.

Suddenly Evie's eyes lit up.

Judging from the current situation, the strength shown by Master David was not much weaker than her mother Queen Isa.

How could he compete with her mother?

While Evie was shocked, she was also a little overjoyed.

It was not that she was siding with the outsider and hoping that her mother would lose to David.

That was obviously impossible.

After years of getting along day and night, Evie had absolute confidence in her mother, Queen Isa.

The stronger David was, the less likely his mother would kill him.

It would be best if the two sides were evenly matched, so no one could do anything to the other.

This would be the best outcome.

Beanie was already shocked and speechless as she stood on one side.

The two rays of light soaring into the sky were so obvious that she naturally saw them too.

One of them was the Elven Queen and the other one was, of course, David.

'Master David is so strong.

'Just now I was worried that he would be killed by the Elven Queen.

'I guess I was just overthinking.

'He can even fight the Elven Queen who is the number one among the Elves, so this is enough to prove how powerful he is.

'This is only in The Spirit Cage and not in the real world, and yet he's already so strong.

'So will he be weak in the real world?

'In Leila, a person with a strong soul power will certainly not be weak in combat.

'Everyone knows that soul power is the most difficult to improve.

'It seems that I am following the right person.

'In the future, I must follow him closely.

'Even being one of his maids is an honor in my life.'

Queen Isa looked at the golden figure in front of her, gritted her teeth tightly, and felt a sense of helplessness in her heart.

'Unexpectedly, this little punk is also hiding his strength.

'I really underestimated him.

'I wonder which force can cultivate such a pervert.

'He's so good at hiding.

'Based on soul power alone, the young geniuses in Leila, sought after and admired by countless people, are not even worthy of kissing this kid's foot.'

"David, I underestimated you. You are very good. At least in terms of soul power, those kids from Leila are far behind you," Queen Isa said in a deep voice.

Although she did not like David very much because of the incident with Evie, she had to admit that this kid was an utter genius.

No matter which forces secretly cultivated this successor, he would definitely gain a foothold in Leila in the future.

If it were not for Evie, Queen Isa genuinely did not want to have a bad relationship with such a person.

That would be very unwise behavior.

The Elves would always make friends with all the strong and powerful forces in Leila as much as possible so that when the Elves were in trouble one day in the future, everyone could lend them a helping hand.

Now, fighting against a young and promising person like David was going against their initial purpose and it was not what Queen Isa wanted.

She even started to regret it now.

If she knew that David's soul power was so strong, she would let Evie marry him directly if he genuinely liked Evie.

Then, the two sides could also form a closer alliance.

It was absolutely worth sacrificing a princess to invest in a little genius like David.

The Elves would also not be disappointed by the gains in the future too.
