

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2274

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2274-If Isa killed him, the forces behind David would fight the Elves at all costs.

There were not many members of the Elves and the truly powerful one who could stand at the top of Leila was only Queen Isa.

Compared with those huge families of the human race, the gap was still very large.

If Isa completely offended the force behind David, the Elves might not escape.

Under this comprehensive consideration, it was not that Queen Isa did not want to kill David, but because she did not dare to.

As the Elven Queen, she had to be considerate of the Elves as a whole.

David was still affected by the shock waves and before he could stabilize himself, the arrow shot by Queen Isa reached him.

The speed was so fast that David was also taken aback.

Luckily he had been on guard against Queen Isa.

Immediately, he stretched out his right hand and grabbed the translucent arrow with all his might.

The moment David grabbed the arrow, a huge force hit him.

He disappeared in place and was sent flying backward by this huge force.

In a blink of an eye, he arrived at a mountain peak more than 20 kilometers away.

Crash!

His body collided with the mountain peak, making a huge vibration and sound.

The high mountain peak, hundreds of meters high, was knocked down.

It was evident how powerful Queen Isa's arrow was.

It would be horrible if it hit David.

Queen Isa achieved her goal with her arrow so she did not continue to attack. After that, the green bow in her hand dissipated.

Then, she also sped quickly to the collapsed mountain.

At this point, she did not feel the joy of victory but was instead a little worried.

Her brows were tightly furrowed.

'Did I strike too hard?'

'Don't die, David, you little punk.'

Queen Isa did not expect that David, who was so brave just now, could not even block her arrow.

She thought she needed to shoot more arrows to beat David!

Whoever thought that one arrow would be enough?

The mountain collapsed, stirring up a thick cloud of dust.

Isa could not see inside the dust and she had no idea what happened to David.

Was he slightly injured, seriously injured, or dying?

There was no movement in the mountain for a long time, so Queen Isa became a little nervous.

'He's not dead, right?'

Queen Isa shook her head again and again.

Should be unlikely.

Judging from the fight just now.

David's strength was beyond doubt.

After shooting that arrow, Queen Isa also withdrew her strength.

At most, David would be seriously injured but not dead.

When Queen Isa was considering whether to go in and have a look, a huge and suffocating energy shot up into the sky in front of her.

Faced with this force, even Queen Isa, the Elven Queen, felt small.

Then came a hurricane

The thick dust was blown away and Queen Isa was also hit by the hurricane.

The hurricane did not harm her, but it blew up her veil, revealing her stunning face and the pair of pointed ears.

Before Queen Isa came back to her senses under this energy, a figure suddenly appeared in front of her.

The figure opened his right hand and was about to grab Queen Isa's neck at lightning speed.

However, when he saw Queen Isa's face and \pointed ears, he was stunned.

His hand also stopped in its tracks.

He stood right in front of Queen Isa and his right hand was only a few centimeters away from Queen Isa's neck.

The two stood motionless in the air in this strange posture.