I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2281-Isa looked at Pebbles in David's arms, her eyes full of disbelief.

When she looked into this little girl's eyes, her whole body trembled uncontrollably and she almost could not stop herself from kneeling.

It was fear from the deepest part of the soul.

It was as if she had encountered a natural enemy. It was a self-formed instinctive protection.

It was nothing to do with strength.

It was more like a lower life meeting a higher life.

No matter how powerful she was, she would feel like she wanted to worship the other party.

Isa was confused.

For her, the feeling was a little familiar.

'It seems I have encountered it before.

'When was it?

'It must have been a long time ago.'

At that time, Isa had just taken over the position of the Elven Queen and she was ready to show her talents and lead the Elves out of their predicament.

Then, from a distance, she saw a figure that she would never forget.

At that time, she also wanted to get on her knees, but back then, she felt it much stronger.

Isa would never forget who that figure was. In addition, she was also Isa's ultimate goal in this life.

She was Empress Elora, one of the five Overlord Leila rulers.

Queen Isa dreamed that, one day, she could stand that high.

Then, the Elves would not need to please any forces anymore.

Instead, countless forces would come to curry favors with the Elves.

No one would dare to sell Elf women, whether in public or secret black markets.

Now, Isa had only accomplished one of them: no one dared publicly sell Elf women anymore.

However, there were still people trading Elf women on the black market. Moreover, their prices would be sky-high.

With Isa's current strength, she still could not deter those crazy desperadoes.

She could only do so when she reached the heights of Empress Elora.

Isa could not understand why she had the urge to worship when she looked at the little girl in David's arms.

'Who is this little girl?'

Isa took another look at Evie and the Elven Guards and noticed that they did not feel anything.

Therefore, it meant that she was the only one feeling that way.

'Could it be that these people's soul power is not enough for them to feel it?'

'But David's soul power is ridiculously strong. How can he hold the little girl so easily while chatting and laughing?'

Isa was lost.

'What's going on here?'

Meeting a young guy with a stronger soul power than her was one thing, but even the look in the eyes of a little girl could make her feel ashamed and panic from the bottom of her heart.

She could not understand this.

David was indeed someone with a sky-high background.

Even the little girl with him was so extraordinary.

“Evie, get ready to go back with me first!” Isa suppressed the shock in her heart and looked at Evie.

“Mother, can I go back with you only after I go to Wier with Master David? It’s the same road anyway,” Evie asked in a low voice.

“No! The elders in the clan are already very dissatisfied with your behavior. If you don’t go back, it will be hard for me to explain. If you don’t go back with me, you better not ask me for help then because I don’t want to make up nonsense to please them,” Isa directly rejected Evie’s proposal.

She did not actually object to Evie getting along with David.

If someone like David grew stronger, he would surely be Leila’s overlord.

The Elves would definitely benefit a lot from having a good relationship with him but now was not the time.

The elders of the clan had urged her countless times.
