I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2288-Therefore, she could not be with a man.

Just like her mother, who had always been by herself.

“It’s okay! Evie, I am not trying to blame you. If David is really as good as you say, it’s normal for you to like him. I also liked someone when I was young.”

“Did you also have a crush on a human man?” Evie looked at her curiously.

This was the first time she heard her mother talk about her past.

“Of course! I was also young, so why couldn’t I have a crush?” Isa smiled.

In fact, she was lying.

Her goal was to get Evie to open up.

Before Isa became the Elven Queen, she had never been out of the Elven Forest.

So how could she fall for a human man?

“But even if you liked him, it was destined not to go anywhere, right, Mother?” Evie suddenly became depressed.

“If it was in the previous era, you are absolutely right in saying this because, as the Elven Princess, you have to shoulder the mission of the Elves. So, even if you like someone, there will be no results. However, it is different now.”

“What’s the difference?” Evie’s eyes showed a hint of surprise.

Although it was hidden very deeply, Isa noticed it.

She smiled slightly and said, “Now the Elves have gained a firm foothold in Leila and my strength is stronger than that of the previous Elven Queen. I can last for a while and still have time to train another Elven Princess.”

“What do you mean?” Evie could not believe it.

“My point is very simple, Evie. If you really like David and if David likes you, then you should bravely pursue your own happiness! I will not only not stop you, but will also help you.”

“But... What about the elders?”

‘You don’t have to worry about the elders, I will take care of them for you,’ Isa said confidently.

She had the confidence to convince the elders.

Once those old stubborn hags knew that David had soul power stronger than her as Elven Queen, even though he was still so young, they would definitely not stop Evie and David from being together.

They would even encourage it.

To those old hags, their clan was everything.

As long as the Elves benefit and as long as it was good for the development of the clan, they would say yes.

Queen Isa knew this very well.

Even if she disagreed with the views of the elders regarding a lot of things, she could not refuse because they were seniors who gave everything for the Elves.

“Mother, i-is this true?” Evie asked with wide beautiful eyes.

“Of course, it’s true. Why would I joke with you about this kind of thing?” Isa replied seriously.

“B-But why?”

It was normal for Evie to be confused.

After all, the elders of the Elves instilled in her the idea that she was the Elven Princess and would become the Elven Queen in the future.

So, she could not like any man or have any close contact with them.

Otherwise, it would be a violation of the clan's rules and she would be severely punished.

So, why did her mother suddenly change her mind?

She would even help Evie deal with the elders?

“Because David is not an ordinary person. His future achievements will be limitless and he may become one of Leila's rulers. The Elves will benefit from you being with him far more than you becoming the Elven Queen. The elders are all for the Elves' sake, so naturally they won't stop it.”

Isa told Evie the truth.

There was no need to hide this kind of thing because after Evie found out, she would work harder to maintain her relationship with David.
