I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2290

It was because David was too young.

Beanie's mature and plump figure resembled a beautiful young woman in her thirties who had given birth to a child.

Meanwhile, Pebbles was an adorable little girl who looked like a doll.

Sometimes, when Beanie walked on the road, she would think unconsciously in her heart as she looked at David and Pebbles, 'If I can really form a family with David, have a child, and live a secluded life as a family of three, how great it would be?'

If David was willing, Beanie could even give him two or three children to form a family of four or five.

She could absolutely give up everything.

The reason Beanie was still single at such an advanced age was not because she had no pursuers. It was simply because she had very high aspirations and did not like the men on Planet Lucio.

Then, David came along and she felt a little ashamed of herself.

She felt unworthy of David.

Maybe this was what everyone meant when they are said to have ideas above one's station.

She did not like those who liked her and the ones she liked did not like her.

That was the reality.

Of course, this was all Beanie's fantasy and she also knew that it was impossible to realize.

With David's strength and status, he would definitely not make such a choice.

Even if he agreed, the forces behind him would not.

Moreover, women were incapable of giving birth in The Spirit Cage.

No matter how real it felt here and it was no different from the real world, it was still a virtual world.

Most of the people who came to The Spirit Cage came to improve their soul power, while very few came here to make money because they could not survive in Leila anymore.

When they raised their soul power to a certain level, they would return to the real world.

David naturally did not know what Beanie was thinking.

He only knew that since the little girl Pebbles had enough treasures to eat, she was growing at a speed visible to the naked eye.

She looked like a 12 or 13-year-old girl now.

When he first met the little girl in Sole, David still remembered that Pebbles was only six or seven years old. In just a few months, she has grown to twelve or thirteen years old.

This growth rate was very fast.

From Pebbles' occasional deep and questioning eyes, David knew that the little girl must have some memory fragments from the past.

However, they were just fragments so she could not construct a complete memory.

So that was why she had that questioning look.

However, the little girl did not say anything so David would not take the initiative to ask.

After what happened last time that caused Pebbles to have a splitting headache, he promised that he would not ask the little girl any more questions.

In fact, David was in a dilemma now.

He hoped that the little girl could grow up quickly, but at the same time, he also wanted her to grow up slowly.

After Pebbles grew up and remembered the past, he could send her home to reunite with her family. Without the little girl by his side, David could go back to Star Kingdom at any time without trouble.

Unlike now.

Every time he went back, Pebbles had to stand guard outside the door.

Yet, after getting along for such a long time, he had grown to like this sensible little girl very much, so he would definitely be reluctant to part with her just like that.

Pebbles would leave him once she remembered her family.

While in a dilemma, the only thing David could do was let nature take its course.

He would not actively intervene.

No matter which way things developed, he would accept it calmly.

Even if they parted ways in The Spirit Cage, perhaps they could meet again in Leila in the future.

When David was with Pebbles in The Spirit Cage and \ very free, a blue light appeared outside Star Kingdom.

It was Blue, the Deity from the Feather family, rushing over from Leila.
