

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2318

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2318-David was the only one who dared insult a Deity and even scold the family behind him.

“You are David? Impossible! This is absolutely impossible! How can you be so strong? A small level 7 civilization will never have someone as strong as you. This is a hallucination. I must be hallucinating! You are lying to me.”

Blue could not accept that he was crippled, and was already a little delirious.

“Your name is Blue, right? The Feather family should have sent you here to deal with Azul’s death. Let me tell you right now that Azul died at my hands. Not only that, you will soon follow in Azul’s footsteps. If your family refuses to accept this, they are welcome to come trouble me at any time. If you come one by one, then I will kill you one by one. If you come in groups, then I will kill that group until I kill everyone in your family.”

After David finished speaking, the murderous intent surged in his body, making Blue feel a chill going straight to the top of his head.

“No! Don’t! Don’t kill me! I am a Deity, I can do whatever I want in the Feather family so I can’t die here! I want to go back! I want to go back to the family to enjoy my life!” Blue shouted frantically.

However, David had completely crippled his body so he could not move at all. The only thing he could move now was his mouth.

Sid, Zenon, and the Sacred Saints watched this scene in disbelief.

They all still remembered how invincible Blue was when he killed Vaughn not long ago.

He acted as if he was a real god.

He was not bothered by anything in Star Kingdom.

Sacred Saints were just like ants to him and he could kill them easily.

Now, with David holding his neck with one hand, he could only beg the other party not to kill him.

What a turn of events.

Who would have thought that Blue, who was still high-spirited just now, would be begging for mercy like a bullied dog?

Sahar, on the side, was scared stupid.

Back then, he fought David on the Simmons Continent.

So how would he not know who David was?

At that time, they were still evenly matched.

Now, he could only hope to catch up to David.

He could not even catch David's shadow.

Sahar could not figure it out.

'How long has it been and how did David get to this point?'

It was one thing to become a Deity straight after crossing Sacred Saint Rank, where countless people were stuck. Now even Blue the Deity was like an ant to him.

'How strong is David?'

'Is that man really David?'

'Is there truly such a heaven-defying person in the universe?'

'Or did David not use his full strength when he was fighting me and was just fooling around with me?'

Either way, Sahar wanted to leave quickly.

Once David came back to his senses, there was no doubt that he would die.

He should take advantage of Blue attracting David's attention. This was his best chance to escape.

Having decided, Sahar stepped back quietly.

Fortunately, David and Blue had attracted everyone's attention so no one noticed him.

After retreating a distance, Sahar quickly turned, ready to escape from this place where he was bound to get into trouble.

If he could get out alive, Sahar swore that he would definitely find a place to live in seclusion and would never appear again in this life.

With David around, he would never have a chance to make a comeback.

Suddenly, a hand on Sahar's shoulder took him aback.

When he turned, he saw a face full of wrinkles.

"Sahar, where are you going?" Sid stared at him, asking in a menacing tone.

He despised this traitor who sided with the enemy to the bone.

When Sahar retreated quietly, Sid knew what he was going to do.

'You want to escape? You should ask me if I agree with that!'
