I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2319-“L-Lord Sid, I... I just want to go back to live in seclusion to recuperate,” Sahar replied with a shaky voice.

He did not expect to be caught by that old fart Sid.

This old man despised evil, so how would he let Sahar go?

Yet, Sid was one of the six Sacred Saints of the Star Kingdom after all. Sahar was just a True Saint.

So, Sahar certainly had no chance of winning.

He could not escape and he felt helpless.

“Go into seclusion to recuperate? Why does it look like you’re trying to escape after seeing your master getting defeated? When you took Blue as your master, did you ever think that he would die in Star Kingdom and die in the hands of Master David?” Sid asked sarcastically.

Then, he answered his own question, “I don’t think so! If you know that Blue will end up this way, you will not take him as your master! This is the way of the universe. It’s changing rapidly and you will never know what will happen in the next moment. So, Sahar, it’s better for you to just be honest.”

“L-Lord Sid, I had no choice. I was in seclusion and I also sealed the entire Simmons Continent, so I couldn’t communicate with the outside world. But Blue barged in suddenly and if I don’t agree to take him as my Master, he will destroy the Simmons Continent and kill all creatures. What can I do?” Sahar said, tears and snot running down his face.

He made it look as if he was the victim.

To survive, Sahar was going all out.

Nothing was more important than life, right?

“Sahar, you don’t need to say these useless things in front of me. Maybe Blue did threaten you, but you must also hope to rely on Blue to kill Master David. I know you well.” Sid exposed Sahar right away.

“Lord Sid, I...”

Sahar wanted to explain, but before he finished speaking, he was interrupted by Sid.

“That’s enough, Sahar, you don’t need to explain anymore. Come back with me. We’ll wait for Master David to take care of Blue and then we’ll let him decide what to do with you. Whether you will survive in the end depends on what Master David says.”

After Sid finished speaking, he grabbed Sahar’s shoulder and his huge Saint Power immobilized Sahar.

It did not take much effort for a Sacred Saint to control a True Saint.

Sahar wanted to resist but knew he could not.

He was still injured, but even if he had recovered from his injuries and returned to his peak, he still had no chance of escaping from Sid.

Meanwhile, Blue was still desperately begging for mercy.

He hoped David would spare his life.

As long as one was a Deity, one could live a happy life, no matter where.

Leila was no exception.

Therefore, Blue did not want to die in this small level 7 civilization.

Even if he could not complete the task, with Blue’s Divine Realm strength and status, he would only get lectured by the head of the family when he got back and receive a symbolic punishment.

However, David would not give Blue a chance.

If the system had not notified him, he could not even imagine what would have happened.

Perhaps Blue would not be able to hurt his peak Ancestral Deity Rank body, but what about the rest of Star Kingdom?

What would Sid, Nova, Celia, Selena, Celeste, and the others do?

Would Blue let them go?

The entire Star Kingdom would be in ruins when David came back.

What would be the point of uprooting the Feather family and killing them all then?

Dead people could not come back to life.
