

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2357

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2357-The Spirit Cage.

A light quickly approached Amber City, one of the eight main cities.

As the powerful energy dispersed, the powerful people in Amber City could feel it from a long distance away. Three top powerhouses rushed out of the city immediately to block the light.

The three were an old man, a middle-aged man, and a middle-aged woman.

They were the heads of the three major families in Amber City-the Birch, Campbell, and Vidales families.

Any family that could rule the main city in The Spirit Cage must also be a superpower in level 9 civilization Leila.

They could not be compared to the nobodies in Wier.

Since these three were heads of their respective families in The Spirit Cage, it meant that their status would also be high in their families and they were probably second only to the existence of the head of their families.

The three looked at each other and they could see doubt in each other's eyes.

It had been so many years since someone powerful broke into Amber City.

The three major families had been fighting, both openly and secretly, for many years and were in constant friction, but once foreign enemies invaded Amber City, they would immediately unite to deal with the enemy and protect Amber City. This was the rule.

At this time, the light had reached the front of the three and stopped.

However, what shocked the three was that the light turned into a ball of green light and they could not see what was inside.

Of course, this green light was Empress Elora who came from Wier not long after her memory recovered. She was also Pebbles, who had been with David for two years.

“Who are you? What is your purpose for coming to Amber City?” The old man asked first.

Even though this person had a powerful energy, the three major families were not weak either.

“You three represent the three strongest forces in Amber City, right?” Elora did not answer but asked the three of them instead.

The three of them were very surprised to hear a young female voice.

They did not expect the powerhouse in front of them to be a woman.

“Exactly! We represent the Birch, Campbell, and Vidales families of Amber City! May I know how we can help you?” It was a middle-aged beautiful woman who spoke this time.

“Since you are members of the three major families of Amber City, I now give you a task to collect all the precious treasures of heaven and earth in Amber City immediately. Remember, I only want the valuable ones and I don’t want rubbish. After that, hand them all to me. Hurry up. I’ve already wasted a lot of time, so I can’t delay anymore. After collecting them from Amber City, I have to go to the other seven main cities to collect more.”

Elora sounded like she was ordering them, and at the same time, she also sounded urgent.

She needed to go out and pass the news to the other four Overlords after she recovered and needed to do that as soon as possible.

However, the trio were not in a hurry at all.

Instead, they wanted to laugh.

‘This person suddenly appeared and ordered them to collect all the treasures in Amber City for her.

‘Such a ridiculous thing is actually happening.

‘Who does she think she is?

‘One of the five Leila rulers?’

The Birch, Campbell, and Vidales families were one of Leila's most powerful forces.

They all had grandmasters that were partial Overlords.

Except for the five Leila rulers, no one would dare to order them to do anything.

Now, such a fearless person had appeared in front of them.

"Ma'am, you're kidding, right?" the middle-aged man asked.

"I'm not kidding! I've wasted two years and I can't delay any longer, otherwise, the consequences will be very serious," Elora continued.

"You're not? Then why did you make such an impossible request? Although our families are the largest in Amber City, we still can't command other forces, and even if we can, why should we do that? What does it matter to us that there will be dire consequences if you waste more time? If there is nothing else, please leave Amber City. You are not welcome here." the old man directly rejected the other party's request.

He admitted that the opponent was strong.

However, he couldn't agree to the other party's request.