I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2374-She was wondering what was wrong with David.

She had thought that it was because of Pebbles' departure.

As for why Pebbles left, Beanie was curious, as were the others. However, no one asked.

If their master did not want to talk about some matters, subordinates like them would not ask.

They were allowed to be curious, but they could not be harmed by their curiosity.

It was evident that their master was not happy because of Pebbles' departure, so it would be wise not to get themselves into trouble at this moment.

"Master David, we will arrive at Amber City in less than a month," Beanie walked up to David and said.

"Alright, thank you for your hard work." David nodded.

"Master David, you're too kind. This is our job and the journey is not hard."

Seeing that David had overcome his sadness, Beanie was very happy.

"Ms. Nacht, I have always regarded you and Rivers as friends. In the future, if there is anything you can't handle by yourselves, whether it is in reality or The Spirit Cage, you can tell me and I will try my best to help you."

"Thank you, Master David! It is our blessing to be able to follow you." Beanie beamed.

In the past, her purpose of following David was because she took a fancy to David's identity and she was hoping to gain his trust.

At this moment, she finally succeeded.

In fact, Beanie was not satisfied with just following David in The Spirit Cage.

She wanted to be by David's side in the real world and help him with some trivial matters in life.

Now, she was not even interested in going back to being the number two of her family and the person in charge of the family in The Spirit Cage.

She just wanted to go on adventures with David.

While the two were chatting and waiting for the Foal Beasts to eat, David suddenly sensed a powerful and terrifying energy that was peeping at him secretly. This was his instinctive reaction when facing a threat after his strength reached a certain level.

Beanie was not strong enough, so she could not feel anything at all. She was still talking while minding her own business.

David, on the other hand, gave her perfunctory responses as his mind was elsewhere.

'Is there someone powerful watching me in the dark?'

'Who is it?'

'Are they just passing by?'

'Or did they make a special trip to find me?'

This person was very powerful. Most definitely the strongest person David had ever met after entering The Spirit Cage.

Even his Supreme level 1 soul power felt a strong threat.

This person was countless times stronger than Elven Queen Isa, the strongest person he has met up till now.

No, there was simply no comparison between the two.

They were miles apart.

The main city truly had a lot of concealed talents.

'We're not in Amber City yet and we've encountered such a powerful person here. It seems that I'm still not strong enough. I must improve myself.'

The first-tier city Wier was far behind.

After staying in Wier for so long, David had never met an opponent that he could take seriously.

No wonder Leila's strongest forces and all the good stuff in The Spirit Cage were all in the main cities.

David decided that when they got to Amber City, he must ask Thor to work harder, earn enough lavish points as soon as possible, and improve his strength a bit.

Otherwise, his little strength would not be enough when he ran into a real powerhouse.

At the very least, David was no match for the one hiding in the dark at the moment.

He continued chatting with Beanie and pretended to be completely ignorant of the other party's existence.

However, that powerful energy was directly locked on David, and was unwilling to leave after a very long time.

Now, David could finally be sure that the other party came for him.

However, what puzzled David was that he had not been in The Spirit Cage for a long and so he did not know someone as strong as that person.

'What is the other party looking for?'

Fortunately, the system had a hiding function, otherwise, the other party would be able to read him like a book.
