I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2375-As time went by, David became more and more confused.

That terrifying energy had never left since it locked in on him.

'What's going on?

'Could it be that they are a backer of a force in Wier, hired to check on me?

'But I don't have much enmity with them!

'I only spent some money in Wier to buy treasures and disrupted the market.

'Is this necessary?

'Someone this powerful won't take action easily, right?

'Or did I make a mistake?'

After a fierce struggle in his heart, David unconsciously looked in the direction of the hidden person to check if he sensed it correctly.

Looking into the distance, he saw a figure.

In a split second, David turned his head again as though that first look just now was just a coincidence.

David was shocked.

He saw a figure with a dazzling green light all over its body. Judging from its figure, it should be a woman, but David could not see her face clearly, so he had no idea what she looked like.

Looks were no longer important to a woman of this level.

Because no matter how she looked, she would still be destined to be an existence that countless creatures needed to look upto.

Moreover, judging from her slender figure, she was already a peerless beauty even in level 9 civilization Leila.

Lorraine was once regarded as a peerless beauty on Earth, but compared with this person, she was not at the same level at all.

One was the number one beauty on Earth, a planet that was not even a level 1 civilization, while the other was rarely matched by anyone in a level 9 civilization.

The difference between the two women was like a small secluded mountainous village on Earth and Capital City, a world-famous super first-tier metropolitan.

The gap was immeasurably large.

At the same time, it also helped David confirm that there was indeed someone powerful secretly observing him.

That person was so powerful that even his Supreme level 1 mind power could not match it.

I'm afraid such a character is rare even in Leila!

David was very surprised on the inside but his face remained unchanged.

He was still chatting with Beanie.

On the other side, there was also a suspicious look in Elora's eyes.

'David turned to look at me. Was it a coincidence? Or has he discovered me and he did that on purpose?

'If it's a coincidence, then it's understandable.

'But if he noticed me and did that intentionally, then it would be interesting.'

With 80% of her soul power restored, she was already an invincible existence in The Spirit Cage.

As long as she hid herself deliberately, no one would be able to detect her.

Elora began to think back to the moment when she met David and when she left.

Suddenly, she realized that this man who had been with her day and night for the past two years was a little mysterious, and she did not seem to know him very well.

He would often leave to either live in seclusion or deal with something.

Sometimes, it would only be one day, but sometimes two or three days.

At that time, Elora had not recovered her memory and was just a simple little girl.

Now that she thought about it, David had a lot of secrets.

In particular, David had a unique energy that could bring great benefits to the souls of those who were close to him.

It was likely that he had an extremely rare and special physique.

However, the universe was so big and there were all kinds of things in it. The level 9 civilization Leila was just a drop in the ocean anyway so it was not surprising that there were some special physiques in the mix.

Besides, everyone had their secrets, which was not surprising.

Elora shook her head.
