

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2378

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2378-The rest only needed to protect themselves.

Honestly, David did not need to make so many.

Celia and the women were always together so it would be useless to give them extra.

However, David had many considerations.

If he made too little, who should he give for safekeeping?

Should he give them to Celia and Pearl whom he knew the longest?

Or Selena and Celeste, the strongest among them?

Even if he gave all of them, what about the rest of the women?

Despite not saying it out loud, they would surely feel sad.

In the end, after some consideration, David decided to make more and distribute to everyone equally.

He could not favor only some people in the group.

It would be exhausting, but not a big deal.

Standing up and taking the small wooden boxes, David walked out of the room.

His first stop was to go to Nova. After that, he would go to Sid and Alba, and finally Celia. '

As an Overlord, David's speed was unimaginable.

The space rules of Star Kingdom no longer restrained him.

It would not take much time for him to go across the entire Star Kingdom.

At this time, Nova was in her study dealing with various affairs on the Iridescent Continent.

The Iridescent Sect was the strongest force on the Iridescent Continent and it would maintain order in the Continent.

As the head of the Iridescent Sect, Nova naturally had to manage the entire Iridescent Continent.

She did not need to care about small matters, but she had to approve the major matters herself.

After reading one report after another. Nova got up and moved her body.

Under normal circumstances, the head of a force would not be the most talented person.

Since there were too many trivial matters to deal with, their cultivation time would be reduced.

Nova did not want to be the head, but it was a pity that she could not find anyone capable to take over.

Especially now that David was living in seclusion, the Iridescent Sect had become the sacred place of Star Kingdom. At the same time, it could be said that it had gathered the attention of the entire Star Kingdom.

If there was a problem, it would be infinitely magnified.

If she could not find anyone suitable, she would not dare to leave her position casually.

A lot of times, she was envious of Celeste.

While Nova was in deep thought, she heard a voice in her ear.

“Nova, you’re so hardworking. Why are you not resting yet?” Hearing this familiar voice, Nova certainly knew who it was.

Following the sound, she saw David sitting there leisurely with his legs crossed.

“David, why are you here?” Nova asked happily.

“I came to see you, Nova. I didn’t expect you to be dealing with the affairs of the sect at such a late hour. It seems so tough to be head of the sect.”

“Duh, what do you think? I am annoyed by all kinds of things every day, but unfortunately, I can’t find a suitable successor. Otherwise, I would have retired to the second line.” Nova could not stop herself from complaining.

“Nova, I’m quite curious. If being a decision-maker of a force is so tiring, so why does everyone still scramble for this position and even fight to the death for it? Throughout the ages, brothers have turned against each other, and father and son have become enemies because of this,” David asked, feeling puzzled.

“The reason is very simple. It is tiring to be the decision maker of a force, but having control over the overall situation, and having the power to decide the life and death of others with one word, is still mesmerizing to others. So, that’s why they would rather work harder to control the life and death of others, rather than relax and be controlled.

Sometimes, your life is easy even if you don’t fight,” Nova explained.

“I see! You know so much more than me, Nova.”

“David, not everyone can be like you. You have a talent that no one else has seen before, so that’s why you take authority so lightly.”

“It’s not that I’m taking it lightly, but I just think that life doesn’t have to be so tiring! Just do whatever you want. No one knows when their last day will be, am I right?” David shrugged, looking indifferent.