I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2386-“Thank you, Master David!” Alba put the box away carefully.

Everything that David gave was a treasure to her.

She would never use it unless absolutely necessary.

“Master David, how should I undo the seal of this box?”

“It’s simple. I’ll teach you. You’ll learn it very quickly.”

After teaching Alba how to undo the seal, David left under her longing eyes.

Then, David returned to the Iridescent Sect and came to the place where Celia and others lived.

This time, instead of sneaking into Celeste’s room like last time, he directly woke everyone up.

When everyone was present, David took out wooden boxes and distributed them equally, two for each person.

Except for Celeste.

Nobody knew what the wooden boxes were, so they examined them curiously.

When Lorraine saw that she also had two, she was overjoyed and moved at the same time.

She was the last to join the big family. Moreover, she was also very arrogant when they were on the way to Star Kingdom.

She looked down on everyone as she thought that she was very talented. Since she could join the Iridescent Sect, she would definitely not be the same as Celia and the others in the future.

She even looked down on David.

Of course, the main reason Lorraine did this was that she was unhappy with David's rejection of her in front of so many people at the grand event of the chosen ones in Somerland.

Women were so petty sometimes.

What Lorraine did not expect was the four elders of the Iridescent Sect not appreciating her talent at all. Instead, they wanted to train her to become the last victim of Azul's awakening.

If it were not for David, she would have become the nourishment for Azul to restore his strength.

The man she hated for so long took the risk to save her.

The moment David saved her, all the hatred in Lorraine's heart turned into admiration for him.

Having experienced life and death, she then saw and thought things differently.

Her prestige and ego were not important.

As long as she could stay with the person she liked, she would be willing to do everything.

If she needed to sacrifice herself for David one day in the future, Lorraine would agree without hesitation.

After all, David saved her life.

Without David, Lorraine would not be where she is today.

After he finished distributing the boxes, David started explaining the function of the boxes and how to use them.

Hearing that David's clones were sealed inside the boxes, everyone looked at them curiously.

After the introduction, David began to teach everyone how to unlock the seal.

He taught everyone one on one.

He must guarantee that everyone could do it very proficiently so they could undo the seal in the fastest time.

Otherwise, in case of an emergency, they would be in trouble if they were too slow.

They had to undo the seal immediately.

As long as the blood essence left by David flew out, the pressure from the blood essence of an Overlord would temporarily deter everything below Overlord Realm.

When the opponent finally reacted, the clone would have appeared and then he would deal with the enemy.

After teaching everyone to undo the seal, David returned to The Spirit Cage.

On the other side, Empress Elora forcibly left The Spirit Cage and returned to Leila.
