I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2403-The conflict between Beanie and the guards of Amber City attracted the attention of many people around them.

Everyone looked like they were waiting for some drama to happen.

Neither the people queuing up to enter nor the other guards had any intention of stepping in to stop them.

They looked as if they could not wait for something to happen.

“You crazy woman, how dare you slander the guards. Let me tell you, you are done for. If you dare to cause trouble in Amber City, not only will you not be able to enter today, but you will also not be able to enter the city in the future. Go back to where you came from. If you don’t leave, don’t blame me for being merciless when I arrest and lock you up!”

Before Beanie had time to refute, David’s voice came from behind.

“Hehe... How high and mighty! How dare a mere gate guard as you lock me up! Who gave you the courage and confidence?”

David got out of the carriage and stepped forward.

Behind him was Thor and the elite guards of the Nacht family.

“Master.” Beanie immediately stepped aside.

David nodded, walked past Beanie, and faced the two Amber City guards.

“W-What do you want? Listen, this is Amber City, not a poor village where you’re the tyrant. Anyone who dares to make trouble here will end up badly.”

The two guards were panicking now.

They collected bribes from those without a pass but did not want to queue to enter the city.

However, they could only do this in secret.

Once exposed, they would surely be punished.

Originally, this was Beanie and the other's first time in Amber City so she gave them precious treasures twice, treasures many times more valuable than what the guards had ever received in the past.

That was why they thought they had encountered an inexperienced local tyrant and wanted to rip them off as much as possible.

Unexpectedly, the other party became hostile all of a sudden.

If they knew this, they would have let Beanie and the others through after the third treasure.

They were very remorseful now that things had escalated to this point.

If they alerted their superiors, not only would they have to give up their treasures and get nothing, they would even get scolded and punished.

They had shot themselves in the foot.

"Yes, we're indeed from a poor village just like you said and we can't compare to the people living in main cities, but this doesn't mean you're better than us. This is my first time in Amber City and I didn't want to make a big deal out of this, but since you're unable to recognize my good intentions and are so greedy, I'd like to see how you'll lock us up," David said indifferently.

He did not have a trace of panic on his face.

He was an Overlord and his soul power had reached Overlord level 1.

Even if there were people in Amber City who could defeat him, there would not be many.

Originally, he wanted to be as low profile as possible since this was his first time in Amber City.

Ultimately, he gave someone the chance to take advantage of him.

How would an Overlord like him accept being bullied by two guards?

The guards wanted to let them through to make their mistakes less obvious.

However, there were so many people watching and they could not lower themselves to do that.

After all, they were the guards hired by the mayor.

“As the guard of Amber City, I’m warning you to back away if you’re smart. Stop clinging onto this or else you’ll be the ones suffering.”

‘You’re so long-winded!’

David lifted his right leg and took a step forward to release some of his energy.

Even though it was only a little bit, the two guards could feel an irresistible energy rushing toward them.

They were pushed back uncontrollably.

During this, the two looked at each other and could see the shock in each other’s eyes.

They knew they were unable to deal with this person in front of them.

So, the two gritted their teeth and nodded at the same time. Then, at the same time, the two made a shocking move.
