I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2405-While the two were at daggers drawn, a voice came from the inside of Amber City.

“The law enforcement team is here. Any unconnected person should get out of the way.”

When they heard this, the gathered guards made way quickly.

Then, a team of more than ten walked over.

All had their heads held high, looking very arrogant. They wore black shirts with the words ‘law enforcement’ printed on them.

They had the right to be arrogant as the law enforcement team had the highest status in Amber City.

It is very hard to join the law enforcement team.

Not only did they have to be strong, but they also needed to pull the right strings.

The law enforcement team would not accept trash.

All matters within the city were within their jurisdiction.

The law enforcement team was many grades higher than the guards who only watched the gate like the city guards.

When the city guards saw the law enforcement team, they had to show them respect. All dreamed of becoming one someday.

“What’s the situation?” The captain of the team asked.

“Sir, these guys didn’t have a pass and wanted to force their way into the city. Of course, the city guards can’t allow this to happen, but they forced the guards to kneel. Sir, they are slapping the mayor across the face by doing so! Please take action to suppress these punks!” The head guard stood up and pointed at David and the others. He was speaking respectfully and carefully.

The captain of the law enforcement team first looked at the two guards kneeling, then at David and his group. He asked, "Is this true?"

"Will you believe me if I tell you he's lying?" David did not answer but asked instead.

"You punk! The captain asked you if it was true, you just need to answer yes or no. Why are you spewing so much garbage? If you say one more word, I'll..."

A member of the law enforcement team pointed at David, cursing. Before he could finish, David looked over with lightning-like eyes.

The team member who insulted David immediately shut his mouth as if someone had grabbed him by the neck.

"Is this the quality of the law enforcement team? To be honest, I have been to so many places and met countless law enforcement officers, but you are the worst I have ever seen. It seems that Amber City is just so-so! You call yourself one of the eight main cities of The Spirit Cage?"

Sigh... Now that I'm here, I don't think you are worthy of the name!" David said, shaking his head.

When he said that, the onlookers all looked at David with horror on their faces.

They wondered, 'Is this kid stupid?'

'How dare he say that about the law enforcement team of Amber City?'

'Everyone knows that the Amber City law enforcement team has huge power and holds the right to life and death over most people.'

'Anyone who offends the law enforcement team will die a tragic death if they don't have a strong background.'

'Since David said this is his first time in Amber City, he's definitely not a local force.'

'Even if he's from other cities or even if he is a tyrant in other first-tier cities, he still can't do that in Amber City.'

'Unless he's from a top force in the other seven main cities. Only then will the mayor of Amber City show him some respect.

'After all, whoever is the top force of a main city was not weak.

'Everyone would know them, even in Leila.

'However, under normal circumstances, a force from one main city won't go to another main city.

'If they're too far away from their descending point, it will be troublesome if any accidents happen.

'So, the chances of David coming from a main city are not big.'

Feeling horrified, the onlookers all looked curiously.

'This is going to be good.'

'David dared to insult the law enforcement team so openly.

'How many years has it been since this happened?'

The two guards on the ground were delighted. This was exactly what they wanted.

"An outsider like you has no right to judge us. Take them away! I want to examine them myself," the captain of the law enforcement team said with a dark face.

What David said had completely enraged him.
