

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2408

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2408-“No! No! We were the ones who were not clear about this, so that’s why you misunderstood us, Master David. It’s our fault! It’s all our fault!”

‘That’s more like it. Then let’s go! Since you’re all here, let’s go to the mayor’s residence first.’ David turned around and got on the carriage.

Now that some of his strength had been exposed, he should just go to the mayor’s residence to have a look.

According to David’s understanding, the mayor’s residence was generally controlled by several strongest forces in turn and it represented the highest combat power of a city.

David’s plan of keeping a low profile could not be realized now.

Now, David had also thought it through. Since they were going to take root here, Thor would surely threaten some people’s interests. Therefore, he should just solve this problem in advance.

He could only return to the real world with peace of mind after he nipped this in the bud.

Otherwise, he would still need to show his strength when the time came.

Viktor breathed a sigh of relief on seeing David turn and enter the carriage.

‘Thankfully I managed to escape this.

‘If David killed me, I would have died in vain.’

The same went for the members of the law enforcement team and the guards behind him.

Who would have thought a young, harmless kid would possess such great strength?

If it were not for his mercy, perhaps they would all be dead now.

After escaping from a disaster, everyone felt that life was so beautiful

They had to pay attention in the future and keep a low profile whenever necessary.

They could not mess with this kind of person again, or they would not even know how they died.

“Get someone to see if those two guys are dead. If they’re not dead, lock them up and wait for Master David to deal with them. They must be tired of living since they did not let Master David into the city after receiving his gifts. They deserve to die ten thousand times,” Viktor looked at the two unconscious guards and said through gritted teeth.

At this moment, he was full of anger but he had nowhere to vent. So, he was dying to tear those guys into pieces.

If it were not for those two, he would not have ended up in this situation today.

He was embarrassed in front of countless people and even offended someone whom he could not afford to offend.

He had no idea if he could survive this crisis safely.

If he was fired by the law enforcement team, then his life would be horrible.

He would never be able to go back to his former glory days.

As the captain of the Amber City law enforcement team, Viktor could not do whatever he wanted and he lived a carefree life.

He had quite a high status.

Wherever he went, others should politely address him as Captain Cerruti.

If he was expelled from the law enforcement team because of this, he would be so aggrieved.

Not only would his status in Amber City fall to the bottom and be ridiculed, but his status in the family would also plummet.

Moreover, he might even be abandoned by his family. Then, he would be someone at the bottom of society.

Viktor did not want that.

So, he must save himself.

The only way was to get David's forgiveness, and this was his last chance.