I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2409-After hearing Viktor's order, several law enforcement team members went to the unconscious guards and kicked them a few times.

They also despised these two rascals.

When they saw the two not reacting, they squatted to see if the two were still breathing.

After confirming that they were not dead, they picked up the two and dragged them into Amber City.

One could imagine that what awaited them would be the most tragic treatment.

Even if David ignored them, Viktor would not spare them so easily.

He was framed so he could only vent his anger on those two.

"What's wrong? Why are you still here? Don't you want to enter the city? Get back in line. If not, you won't be allowed to enter the city!" Viktor scanned the onlookers and yelled.

He was so inferior just now, but after David left, he went back to his arrogant self.

In front of David, he had to be inferior. After all, he was not strong enough and he knew better than to fight when the odds were against him.

When Viktor said that, the onlookers dispersed quickly.

Even though they were not happy, they dared not show it.

If David dared to take action against the law enforcement team, it proved that he was capable and had the background to do so.

They did not dare to offend the law enforcement team.

If not, they would not be able to stay in Amber City.

The city guards also dragged their injured bodies back to their post and continued to watch the gates.

David and his team got into the three carriages and entered Amber City while the people in line watched them with envious gazes.

Viktor brought David and his team to the mayor's residence.

He had already reported what had happened to the captain of the whole law enforcement team.

Then, the captain reported this to the mayor of Amber City.

At this moment, the mayor of Amber City, Salem Birch, was waiting for David at his residence.

It was rare to see someone who dared to start trouble at the gates of Amber City.

Something like this had happened in the past but all got the punishment they deserved.

It had been a while since someone did this.

So, Salem wanted to see who this person was.

Once he arrived at the mayor's residence, David got off and lifted his head to look at the tall and formidable door of the mayor's residence.

He could feel very strong energy from the inside. Of course, it was not the energy he felt while on his way here; that was miles away from this.

Compared to his, it was pretty inferior.

Therefore, David was curious.

'What's going on?

'Isn't the mayor's residence controlled by the biggest forces of a city?

'Why is the energy from Amber City's mayor's residence so weak?

'It's even weaker than the mysterious person I encountered on the way.

'Was that the mayor?'

While David was guessing whether the energy inside was from the mayor, Viktor bowed to him and said, "The mayor is waiting for you. After you, Master David."

As David walked into the residence, he was even more confused.

'Is this the level of Amber City's mayor?'

'Isn't this a little weak?'

'Who's the mysterious person I met back then?'

'Are they not from Amber City?'

David shook his head. He could not understand what was going on so he decided to stop thinking. He would only decide after he met this so-called mayor.
