I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2413-“Thank you, Mayor Salem,” David replied politely.

This old man was nice.

At the end of the day, he was the mayor of Amber City so he was not as narrow-minded as those hotheads outside that were all brawns and no brains.

David would always respect the people who respected him.

If Salem treated a stranger like him that way, then David naturally had to be polite too.

“David, you’re too kind. May I know where you’re from? I don’t think you’ve been here before.”

“Mayor Salem, this is indeed my first time in Amber City. As for where I’m from, I can’t tell you because of some reasons. Please forgive me.”

David wanted to tell Salem the truth but, too bad, Salem would not believe him.

So, he had no choice but to lie.

Salem was understanding.

He thought David was the heir cultivated in secret by some large force in Leila and had not shown his face outside before, so that was why he did not want to expose who he was.

“I understand. If that’s the case, I won’t ask you again. If you need anything in the future, you can come to me. I still have some authority in Amber City. As long as it’s within my power, I will do my best to help you.”

David was surprised by Salem expressing goodwill to him.

‘I don’t have any background, so why is a mayor doing this?’

‘Did he see my strength?’

'Impossible!'

David rejected this answer.

David knew what the system could do.

Even that powerful mysterious person did not know his secret, so how would Salem tell?

"Thank you, Mayor Salem! I will stay in Amber City for some time, so I hope you will take good care of me." David thanked him again.

"You're too kind! David, you're young and promising, so you will have a good future. Just come to me if you need anything."

The two chatted happily for a while.

As for David causing trouble at the gates of Amber City, Salem did not mention it once. It was as if he did not know about this.

Salem was treating David as a small investment.

This was just a small matter.

Now that he was old and had lived a long time, he would remember himself as a young man whenever he saw someone like David, so filled with energy.

According to what Arian said, David could easily handle a law enforcement team and more than a hundred city guards with just two words.

So, his soul power definitely stood out among the younger generation in Leila.

Moreover, he had the means to hide himself.

While he was out there, he was not at all bothered by Captain Arian Longer of the law enforcement team.

Considering all these things, David must have been cultivated secretly by one of the major forces.

This person would surely become the mainstay of all the forces. He might even become the true controller of them all.

The Birch family had a partial Overlord grandmaster and their power was also at the top of Leila. Aside from the five Leila rulers, there was no one worth currying favors with.

However, it would be better to have one more friend than one more enemy.

If he punished David today, the force behind David would come to him in the future. That would be troublesome.

Even though the Birch family was not scared, it would be better to not cause trouble.

Whenever two major forces collided, both sides would surely lose.

With this in consideration, Salem did not make things hard for David.

Of course, if he dared to do so, David would not mind showing Salem who he was.

An Overlord's soul power was invincible in The Spirit Cage.

Even if everyone in the Birch family in Leila combined their power, they could not be David's opponent.

David did not need to use his clones to defeat the Birch family easily. This was the difference between an Overlord and anyone below Overlord Realm.

The difference between the two could not be made up by increasing the number of people.

"Mayor Salem, if there's nothing else, I'll take my leave. I just got to Amber City, so I must find somewhere to settle down." David put his hands together to take leave.
