I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2424-Everyone had their loved ones, and they were only together because of David.

If David were gone, they would return to their loved ones.

The first person to discover David was Lorraine. After all, she was a Saint. Even though she lacked experience, she still had the strength.

The moment she saw David, Lorraine immediately stood up in surprise. Just as she was about to greet David loudly, she suddenly realized that, among the women here, she was the one least close to him.

Aside from Celia, David's real girlfriend, all the others were David's confidantes. Only she was nothing.

So Lorraine swallowed the words at the tip of her tongue, and simply announced, "David is here!"

Hearing David's arrival, everyone stopped their training and opened their eyes.

"David!"

"Master David!"

"Dave!"

Surprised voices could be heard.

"I didn't disturb your cultivation, right? Why don't you continue and I'll come back later?" David laughed.

"That's enough! You're here. It would be a miracle if they are still in the mood to train," Celeste said as she walked towards David.

There was also a smile on her face.

David's arrival made her very happy too.

The rest of the women rushed towards David excitedly.

Only Lorraine stood there awkwardly. She felt lost and had no idea what she should do.

At this moment, she felt a little envious in her heart.

Then, a voice suddenly rang in her ear.

“Lovewood, do you still hate David?”

Lorraine knew who it was the moment she heard that voice.

It was Selena!

The woman whom she viewed as her opponent.

Selena’s talent and appearance were not inferior to Lorraine’s at all.

“Do you think I have the right to hate him?” Lorraine said in self-mockery.

“I know you were crushed when David rejected you in front of the countless forces in Somerland. You were utterly ashamed. Back then, you were known as a peerless woman, and the heirs from the two major families in Somerland were fighting over you. However, David rejected you in front of so many people and that was why you set boundaries with everyone on the way to Star Kingdom.”

Selena and Lorraine stood together, their eyes staring at the lively scene not far away.

A bunch of women, each with their appeal, surrounded David tightly.

There was the mature and voluptuous Celeste, the pure and beautiful Astrid, and the youthful Sandy who would never grow up.

Others also had their special characteristics. Each one had a unique beauty.

Only an outstanding man like David could be favored by so many women!

Even though David had refused all of them, they would still rush to them like moths to a flame.

Like Selena.

She was rejected by David, but she never gave up and has been with him until now.

“It’s all in the past, isn’t it? How can I hate David now? If it weren’t for him, I would have been a pile of bones and got sucked up by Azul. He is my savior and I can’t even thank him enough. Why would I hate him?” Lorraine replied with a wry smile.

She despised David before.

It was David who embarrassed her in front of all the forces in Somerland and became a joke.

It turned out that Lorraine, who was contended for by the heirs of the Warner family and the Zimmerman family, became an unwanted woman.

During that time, she hated David to the bone.

However, when she was almost sucked up by Azul as nourishment on the Iridescent Sect’s forbidden land, David came down like a god and saved her from death at the last moment.

After experiencing that, Lorraine did not hate David anymore.

Not to mention that David gave her such a precious thing, his clone.
