

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2428

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2428-It would be even more impossible for the people here to be monogamous.

“That’s why David can’t accept so many women. It’s because he grew up in such an environment. Perhaps, to David, this is something absurd. So, even at the top of Star Kingdom, where he has the power to control the entire Star Kingdom and decide countless people’s fate with just one word, it’s hard for him to change just like that. He still needs time to get used to this. All we can do now is wait. Well wait for the day David gets over this and accept us.”

When she said this, Celeste suddenly became down.

She had intercourse with David multiple times in fantasy. They had done everything they could do in that environment.

Logically speaking, there should not be any barriers for them in real life.

However, it was not the case.

This made Celeste very depressed.

“What if he never gets over this?” Nova asked.

“We’ll keep waiting! What can we do? After knowing David, other men are not attractive enough for us anymore. What can we do when all other roads are blocked? However, I believe that David will eventually get over this,” Celeste answered helplessly.

“Another question, since David grew up in such an environment and he can’t accept other women apart from Celia, aren’t Selena and the others from Earth too? Why do they still choose to ignore everything and follow him? Why are the women not affected by the rule?”

“Didn’t I say? Who can still fancy other men after they get along with David? Let’s take you as an example, Lady Dream, you’ve gotten along with David before. If I ask you to marry a Sacred Saint right now, will you?” Celeste suddenly asked with a half-smile.

Nova was stunned by this sudden question.

Two to three seconds later, Nova came back to her senses and stammered, "I... I never planned to marry anyone. Your question doesn't exist."

"Alright, Lady Dream, we discussed this question before. Back then, you kept complaining that it's so hard being the head of the sect and your life is so tiring. Plus, you've said multiple times that you want to just marry someone powerful and live a carefree life. You even said you're envious of those girls who got married."

Celeste did not hesitate to expose Nova's lie about not wanting to marry.

"Well, well, Celeste! You're teasing me now, huh? Should I tell David about your past?"

At this moment, Nova's face was red as if she was intoxicated. She looked stunning.

A woman thousands of years old, with skin on her face no different from a teenage girl. This was something women below Eternal Realm could never have.

As the head of the Iridescent Sect, Nova always looked serious.

Now, she was showing a shy expression. If outsiders saw this, there would surely be a sensation.

"No! I'm sorry, Nova! Please don't tell David."

When Celeste heard that Nova wanted to tell David about her past, she admitted defeat immediately.

They talked about a lot of gossip and scandals back then.

The two felt as if they had gone back to a thousand years ago when Celeste was still young.

Back then, the two would talk about anything.

"That's more like it!"

"But, Nova, are you really going to be the head of the Iridescent Sect forever? Are you sure you don't want to pursue your happiness?" Celeste asked seriously.

“W-What happiness should I pursue?” Nova rolled her eyes at Celeste.

“David, of course! Now, aside from Celia, David never accepted another woman. Everyone’s on the same starting line and is all waiting for the day David changes his mind. You can join us. This time, David has left the means to deal with the Feather family in Star Kingdom so it’s unsure when he’ll come back. If you miss this chance, it’ll be too late to be remorseful.”