I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2432-If anyone had any ideas and suggestions in their mind, they would discuss them with her and she would pass them on to David.

After all, Celia was the closest to David.

The other women also had very good relationships with David. Otherwise, they would not follow David.

However, at the end of the day, they were not officially with David, so they were not truly intimate.

At first, David did not understand what Celia said and it took him a second or two before he realized.

'Isn't Nova her master?'

He looked at Nova and asked, "Nova, you want to come to Earth with us?"

"What's wrong? Am I not welcome?" Nova asked calmly.

At this time, she was quite nervous.

She was afraid that David would see what was on her mind.

Although Celeste had convinced her, she still could not get over the hurdle in her heart in a short time.

She was indeed much older than David.

However, this was not the main thing.

As Celeste said, after she got to Eternal Realm, she would have at least one epoch of lifespan. Once she had that, being thousands of years old was nothing so this could be completely ignored.

The most difficult thing for Nova to accept was that Celia and the women were still her disciples.

At the same time, David was Celia's boyfriend.

Wouldn't she be stealing her disciple's man?

This was rare even in places as advanced and very open-minded as Star Kingdom.

Of course, it was not to say that there was no such thing.

To prosper and have more offspring, some big families had dozens or even hundreds of women to serve a man.

Some of them might even be sisters, let alone masters and disciples.

Star Kingdom was a place where you could do whatever you wanted as long as you had the strength.

For example, the six Sacred Saints. Except for the only female, which one did not have many women and descendants?

Even David, who was so earth-shatteringly powerful that he surpassed everyone in Star Kingdom, only had Celia as his only woman. This was simply a miracle and very unique.

Normal men would never do that.

"No way! Why would I not welcome you? Just come along if you want to. It's nothing!" David smiled and answered.

Even though he was full of doubts, he did not say it out loud.

"Master, see? I told you David would agree. This is great! With your guidance, we'll surely improve leaps and bounds," Celia said happily.

"What are you saying, Celia? Are you saying I wasn't a good teacher?" Celeste chimed in.

However, her expression indicated that she was teasing Celia.

"Ah! I'm sorry! I'm so sorry! I was wrong, Celeste. You're a good teacher too. However, now that Master is here, she can share your burdens so that you won't be too tired. After all, we didn't train for too long and we're still confused about many things. We need a lot of explanation before we truly understand," Celia quickly changed what she was saying, an apologetic look on her face.

“Alright, alright, I was just joking! Why are you taking me seriously?” Celeste laughed.

‘That’s more like it. I thought you wouldn’t welcome me.’ A grin also appeared on Nova’s face.

She also let out a sigh of relief on the inside.

To be honest, it was pretty tough for her to muster up the courage to get to this stage.

She was bewitched by Celeste.

Back then, she never had such thoughts.

Furthermore, she never thought she would one day abandon the sect and her family to go with David.

“However, Nova, aren’t you the head of the sect? What will happen to the sect after you’re gone?”

“I’m exhausted after being the head for so many years. I want to use this chance to go take a look outside. As for the sect, it’s the same with or without me. Now that you’ve gained your reputation, the sect has become a sacred place in Star Kingdom. Who will dare to cause trouble here?” “You’re right.” David nodded.
