I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2492-No matter how much money they had, they needed to be alive to spend it.

They were only people from the bottom tier, and they could not afford to offend a big shot like this.

Thor seemed calm and he did not blame them.

After all, he hired all of them.

They were only here to offer their labor, not their lives.

When the guards were about to barge into Jumbo Court...

“Stop!”

A deep voice stopped them in their tracks.

Captain Arian Longer of the Amber City law enforcement team walked over. Behind him were the different team captains of the law enforcement team.

The law enforcement team maintained the order of Amber City.

Wherever there was conflict, they would be there.

Aside from the three major families, everyone would need to pay respect to them.

However, the person causing trouble was the direct descendant of the Campbell family, one of the three major families.

He was someone who could ignore Arian.

When Thor saw Arian, his tense nerves gradually relaxed.

With the captain here, no one would dare to act recklessly.

However, what Arian said next stunned Thor and the crowd surrounding them.

“Master Perry Campbell, can you please stop this for my sake?” Arian said courteously to Perry.

What he said bewildered Thor and the others.

Who was Arian?

He was the captain of the Amber City law enforcement team.

He had a very high status, so there were not a lot of people in Amber City to whom he had to be so courteous.

Everyone wondered, 'Master Perry Campbell? Is that young man from the Campbell family, one of the three major families in Amber City?

'Perhaps only someone from the Campbell family can make Arian so courteous.'

"For your sake? Arian, who do you think you are? Do you think you are so great as the captain of the law enforcement team? The nerve of you to act like such a poser in front of me." Perry looked at Arian with a cold smirk.

Everyone knew Arian's status in Amber City. Not a lot of people could rule over him.

However, the Campbell family was one of them.

They could suppress him with no questions.

As the direct descendant of the Campbell family, Perry would naturally look down on Arian based on his arrogant and impatient character.

"Perry, I've given you so much respect by calling you Master. Please don't be so arrogant. It won't be good for anyone if you make a huge fuss out of this. In the end, both sides will lose out." Arian frowned.

Arian trusted David's identity.

Both of these people had the top forces in Leila behind them.

The only difference was that even though Perry was the direct descendant of the Campbell family and he was noble, he was a hedonist so his family did not attach a lot of value to him.

On the other hand, David was the heir of the force behind him who cultivated him in secret.

They had backgrounds of the same level but they were different to a degree.

As time passed, this gap would only grow bigger.

When David took over the force behind him one day, their difference would be miles apart. It could even be said that they differ enormously from each other.

Arian built a good relationship with David, so of course, he had to help David.

He would help David even if it meant offending Perry.
