

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2497

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2497-“Fabiola, I’m begging you to please spare me! I will go back when it’s time for our wedding, but before that, please stop bothering me and give me some time to be alone, okay?” Perry cried helplessly.

He had no choice.

He could not provoke her nor hide from her.

Since Fabiola came into The Spirit Cage and appeared at Amber City directly, she clearly came in from the Campbell family.

This also meant that the Campbell family allowed this.

No matter where he was, Fabiola would go after him.

Perry knew he could not change his gate.

Now, he only hoped that he could have some fun before his wedding.

When the onlookers heard Perry’s helpless words, they were all beyond shocked.

There were not a lot of people who could force Master Perry Campbell like this.

This woman like a little mountain surely had an extraordinary identity.

Since they were too far away from the Marche family’s jurisdiction, they could never understand how powerful the Marche family was.

They were not weaker than the Campbell family at all, and they were even slightly more powerful.

The Campbell family only had one partial Overlord grandmaster while the Marche family had two.

This was the difference between the two families, and it was also why the Campbell family was willing to be at a disadvantage in this arranged marriage.

No man would want to marry a woman like Fabiola if it was not for an arranged marriage or unless the Marche family was forcing them.

“Perry, stop resisting. Come back with me. I will not let you suffer in the future.” Fabiola remained unmoved.

She decided that she would follow Perry today.

Of course, Perry would not give in submissively.

The two were haggling with each other.

One hoped that he could enjoy his life before the marriage and not interfere with the other’s life.

While the other figured that since they were going to get married, she should watch over her husband so that he would not mess around.

The two were firm on their opinions and one could not convince the other.

At this moment, a young and handsome man walked over carrying a five to six-year-old girl who looked like a porcelain doll.

That person was David.

When he was walking over, he quickly covered the eyes of Pebbles in his arms.

There was blood and vomit everywhere.

The pungent smell was unbearable.

There were more than ten corpses sprawled all over the ground.

David was curious.

He wondered, ‘Why are so many people dead? Judging from their clothes, they’re onlookers.’

When David saw Fabiola, he was even more shocked.

He thought to himself, 'Does such a strange woman exist in this world? Her height and her weight is making her look like a round ball-shaped monster.'

She was also holding the leg of some unknown beast that weighed about 5kg.

She completely challenged David's idea about women.

The women around him, namely Celia, Selena, Mia, Astrid, and the others, were all gentle and soft.

When had he even met someone like Fabiola?

David looked at Fabiola and Perry who were in a stand-off. Then, he ignored them and walked straight to the entrance of Jumbo Court to meet Arian and Thor.

"Master David!" Thor called out respectfully.

"Master David," Arian also greeted him courteously.